Coexisting with a bear

BY LISTA DUREN
SPECIAL TO THE TOWN CRIER

The black bear featured on last week's cover continues to roam the Idyllwild area. It showed up at the Tisos' Mountain Center ranch around Wednesday, May 10, but they didn't see it for several days.

First, Allan Tiso noticed that the food for the barn cats had been tipped over and dragged. A few days later, two chickens disappeared. Thinking he was stopping a coyote, Tiso put the other chickens in a heavy rabbit hutch and weighted it with cinder blocks. Easily, the bear turned over the hutch and tore off the lid — this was his undoing.

The day they finally saw the bear, Tiso said, "We sat down to dinner at the same time he sat down to dinner." The family looked out the window and saw their new "chicken coop" turned over with the bear almost totally inside eating the chicken food, having already eaten the remaining chicken.

Finally understanding who the visitor was, the Tisos made the necessary changes to protect their ranch and encourage the bear to return to the wild. They put their metal garbage cans and metal pet food cans in a small building, and observed that the bear didn't like the electric fencing that protects their other livestock. The clean-up worked.

On Thursday or Friday, May 18 or 19, the bear left the Tisos. He checked residences in Fern Valley and continued to Humber Park. After that, he reversed direction. He swung by the Tisos and slid open the barn door looking for the cat food which was now not only in a metal canister but also hanging from a stout hook, just out of reach. A few claw marks are the only evidence that the bear came back. He didn't stay.

Following its nose, the bear showed up in Garner Valley on Wednesday, May 24, looking for residents or campers who might not be as bear aware as the Tisos.

This is the first bear seen in the Idyllwild area in more than 15 years. Where did it come from and how did it get here? We talked to Kevin Brennan, wildlife biologist with the California Department of Fish and Wildlife, to get the bear facts.

Two bears have been sighted recently in nearby urban areas: Banning at the Rite Aid on Thursday, May 4, and Indio at the Ford Agency on Sunday, May 14. Wildlife officials tranquilized the Indio bear, ear-tagged it and moved it to the nearest mountain habitat in the Santa Rosa Mountains. The Banning bear continued its own trek into the woods.

Brennan confirmed, from Tiso's photos, that the bear visiting Idyllwild came from Banning. It is the same color, with the same large white blaze on its chest, and it has no ear tags. It made its way here from Banning on its own.

IWD directors' learning curves and growing pains

BY KRIS KIRSCHBAUM
CONTRIBUTOR

With the exception of Steve Kunkle, members of the Idyllwild Water District Board of Directors are all new to their positions. They are learning the ropes as they go, and in some areas there is a steep learning curve. During the special meeting of the board on Wednesday, May 24, there was lengthy discussion regarding the pipeline project scheduled for an area including Bicknell, South Circle, and Marian View and a segment of Cedar Street.

Directors Kunkle and Vic Sirkin voiced disapproval of the project and encouraged the board to scrap it, return the grant fund money and reconsider the need to replace the water pipes in the areas specified. Director Peter Szabadi encouraged the board to continue the project and raised concern about how the district would be viewed as a larger risk for future grants if another project were scrapped and grant monies returned. Money from two grants has already been returned with work stopped on the horizontal wells and the recycled water projects.

Director Geoffrey Caine voiced his indecision and asked acting General Manager Jack Hoagland to speak to the specifics of the project. Although he initially said he preferred not to comment, Hoagland eventually described how materials and specifications for the project will help the new pipeline last longer and potentially have fewer problems than previous types of material and design. After more discussion of future projects and grant funding issues, Caine seconded the motion made by Szabadi to move forward with the project, and the directors passed the motion to put the project out to bid with board President Dr. Charles "Chip" Shelley as the third in agreement. Kunkle and Sirkin voted no.

The board and the few members of the public in attendance also heard from Idyllwild Fire Protection District Chief Patrick Reitz about meter size and sprinkler systems in the district. Reitz said that all new construction and homes (the discussion only concerned residential property, not commercial) having from 10- to 50-percent square footage of addition, depending on the type, are required to have meters to accommodate

Over the Memorial Day weekend, a sink hole measuring about 3-by-1.5 feet developed in the northbound lane of Highway 243 about even with the south end of the guardrail at Dead Man's Curve in Pine Cove. An initial effort was made at repair, followed by what Caltrans Public Information Officer Terri Kasinga termed a more-involved temporary patch. On Tuesday, she indicated that Caltrans currently is working with the U.S. Forest Service and the Pine Cove Water District in obtaining permits needed to make a permanent repair in July. On Wednesday morning, Caltrans employees were back filling in the hole for the third time so far. Kasinga believes the need for continued filling will likely expedite the permit process.

Measure W still an issue for IFPD

BY KRIS KIRSCHBAUM
CONTRIBUTOR

Idyllwild Fire Protection District held its regular commission meeting on Tuesday, May 23, a meeting that lasted three-and-a-half hours. Vice President Larry Donahoo was excused from the meeting, but all other commissioners were present. Fire Chief Patrick Reitz moved agenda items to accommodate Liz Loomis, a communications expert recently relocated to Palm Springs from Snohomish, Washington. Loomis made a proposal to the board for improved communication services between IFPD and its constituents. The proposal included multiple communication approaches, including mailed items to residents, use of social media, news releases and public outreach. The proposal focused on future ballot measures, primarily how to pass Measure W in the future. Loomis' fees were roughly $40,000 for the first year with a proposed timeline of 18 months. The board did not approve her proposal. While she confirmed suggestions made by the board regarding communication with the public, there was not money in the budget to meet her fees. The finance committee and Reitz will review the preliminary budget to determine if items can be cut to pay for the communication services before the final budget is presented in June. One possible budget item that could be scrapped is the external EMS coordinator position. Those funds would help fund costs of a communication expert. The ultimate goal of improved communication with constituents is to pass Measure W. Money received from Measure W would justify expenses on communication services proposed by Loomis. Measure W also played a role in the annual Unit Fee/Parcel Fee which remains the same for 2017-18 at $65. But the first hour of the meeting was a closed session to confer with legal counsel regarding existing litigation in James Reyes vs. IFPD regarding public employee discipline/dismissal/release. Only commissioners, Chief Patrick Reitz and the attorney were present. Once the regular meeting began, the attorney informed the public that there was no reportable action resulting from the closed session. Reitz reported that notices for property abatement had been sent, and he anticipates that second inspections will be 100 percent completed by Thursday, June 1. Changes in personnel in recent weeks included retirement of Capt. Jack Peckham and sudden resignation of Eddie Apodaca. Two captains in training are expected to take the captain's test soon. Regarding community involvement, the chief reported that the May blood drive had a lower turnout than usual, but that the number of attendees at the Spaghetti Dinner exceeded their expectations. Battalion Chief Mark Lamont presented the April 2017 fire, medical and incident statistics. The stats showed using the rescue squad instead of the fire engine in the last month resulted in faster response times and more cost-efficient use of equipment. Medical responses accounted for the majority of calls. Roughly 84 percent of calls in April alone were requests for emergency medical services, and the yearly running total from July 2016 showed that more than 75 percent of the calls for assistance were EMS calls. Lamont also reported that on June 1, the Idyllwild Career Firefighters Association will issue Red Cards to those who finished wildland fire training. Paul Riggi of the Idyllwild Volunteer Fire Company reported on the success of the Spaghetti Dinner. Next events included the volunteer barbecue at Idyllwild School on May 30, and an awards ceremony the same day at the school to honor Michael Sabo with an academic achievement award. Treasurer Jerry Buchanan presented the preliminary budget for fiscal year 2017-18. The total budget calls for about a $100,000 increase, which is a 4-percent increase over last year's total budget of just over $2 million. Large percentage increases in expected revenues are projected to come from two sources: supplemental property taxes for previous years, and double the amount of financial donations. Largest increases in expenditures are for captains' overtime pay (mutual aid) with more than a 700-percent increase (from $2,500 to $20,300) from last year, and a 3,400-percent increase (from $100 to $3,500) for publications and legal notices. Other large increases in expenditures are listed as bank fees (550-percent increase from $200 to $1,300) and miscellaneous district expenses (2,000-percent increase from $100 to $2,100). Ambulance service rates will increase 4 percent for all ambulance services rendered in 2017-18. The preliminary budget was approved with a final budget for next year expected in June. The balance sheets and budget are available for review. The next regular board meeting is scheduled for 1 p.m. Tuesday, June 27.

Twelve people rescued from the wilderness over the weekend

(This story was taken from a State Parks press release.) Mt. San Jacinto State Park spokesperson Todd Friedman reported four rescues involving 12 hikers in the wilderness, all on Sunday. State Parks received a call of a missing hiker at about 1:30 p.m. Sunday. The 45-year-old man from Huntington Beach got separated from his scouting troop while descending from the peak. A State Parks rescue team was quickly assembled and found the subject a few hours later, about 1 mile from Mt. San Jacinto peak. Ironically, while searching for the reported missing hiker, the State Parks Rescue Team found a lost hiker at about 3 p.m. The lost hiker, a female in her 20s from Canada, was found about a half mile off trail about 2 miles from the peak. Then, at about 3:30 p.m., State Parks received a report of seven dehydrated hikers on the Skyline route. The hikers had run out of water about 2 miles down the route. A State Park Rescue Team was quickly assembled along with a California Highway Patrol airplane. The State Parks Rescue Team found the seven hikers about one hour later. The seven hikers varied in age from 30 to 50 years old, all from Mexico. All of the hikers were fatigued and dehydrated. State Parks gave the hikers water and assisted them to the top of the Skyline route, which ends at Long Valley. When the team was headed back to the ranger station at about 5 p.m., they found three lost male hikers ages 19, 21 and 21 years old from Pasadena, Van Nuys and Lake Balboa, 1.5 miles off trail in the wilderness. The three lost hikers were escorted back to Long Valley.

County selects new CEO

(This is taken from a Riverside County press release.) The Riverside County Board of Supervisors last week appointed George A. Johnson as county executive officer, effective Thursday, June 8. The announcement came after the board appointed Johnson, 56, to the position in closed session following the regular board meeting. Board Chairman John Tavaglione praised Johnson for his hard work in the county Executive Office and other county departments. "We couldn't have picked a better man," Tavaglione said. "George knows the organization well and brings stability as we work to transform county operations during difficult financial times. I could not be happier with his selection." Johnson has served as the county's chief assistant executive officer for five years and has worked for Riverside County for 26 years. Previously, he was director of the Transportation and Land Management Agency and director of the Transportation Department. He will succeed Executive Officer Jay Orr, who recently announced his retirement after 34 years with the county to accept a teaching position with Claremont Graduate University. Johnson worked for eight years in the private sector as a civil engineer. He earned a Master of Arts in leadership and organizational studies in 2014 at California Baptist University in Riverside and a Bachelor of Science in civil engineering at Cal Poly Pomona.

HUSD and teachers reach tentative agreement

(This is taken from an HUSD press release.)

The Hemet Unified School District on Thursday, May 25, announced that the district and the Hemet Teachers Association reached a tentative agreement for the 2016-17 and 2017-18 school years.

Both parties mutually agreed to enter into mediation on Monday, March 29, regarding Article 9 Salary and Article 8 Benefits. The tentative agreement includes language modification in several articles, as well as an increase to salary.

The tentative agreement states that all certificated salary schedules will be adjusted to reflect a 1.5-percent increase, retroactive to Jan. 1, 2017, for the 2016-17 school year; a 0.5-percent increase effective July 1, 2017; and another 1.5-percent increase will be applied on Jan. 1, 2018, for the 2017-18 school year.

The entire contract is now closed and all tentative agreements reached by the negotiation teams will be incorporated into the new contract pending ratification of HTA members and approval by the Governing Board of Education.

In addition to the increases in salary schedule, HUSD also agreed to provide an annual stipend of $750 to school psychologists who are Nationally Board Certified; an annual stipend of $3,000 to the agricultural service provider; and increase retiree health and welfare benefits from $3,500 to $4,500.

HTA President William Valenzuela said, “There were many incremental improvements made on several issues that will serve our students and educators better in the future. This deal advances our great public schools and the lives of the professionals who make them so. We will never stop fighting to ensure our schools are filled with the quality, caring individuals that our community has become known for.”

“I want to thank the negotiation teams for their diligent efforts in reaching a resolution,” said HUSD Superintendent Christi Barrett. “We are thankful that the relationship between the District and HTA has remained strong throughout the negotiations process. This resolution will allow us to remain focused on the most important work of the district, our students’ success.”

Cal Fire suspends burn permits

(This is taken from a Cal Fire press release.)

After a wet winter, warming temperatures are quickly drying out the abundant annual grass crop. The increasing fire danger posed by the high volume of dead grass and hotter, drier conditions in the region is prompting Cal Fire to suspend all burn permits for outdoor residential burning within the State Responsibility Area of Riverside County. This suspension took effect Friday, May 26, and bans all residential outdoor burning of landscape debris such as branches and leaves.

“We are asking that residents not be lulled into a false sense of security on the heels of an exceptionally wet winter,” said Chief Ken Pimlott, Cal Fire director. “The abundant dead grass will only serve as a fuse to the heavier vegetation still suffering the lasting effects of 5 years of extreme drought.”

Also, the following restrictions went into effect last Friday and until further notice:

- Use of campfires is restricted to within established campfire facilities located in established campgrounds open to the public.
- Cooking fires with a valid permit are permissive when no alternate means of cooking is available and requires an on-site inspection prior to the issuance of a permit.
- Warming fires are permissive and require an on-site inspection prior to the issuance of a permit when weather conditions exist to justify the request.

Obituary Theresa Everhart 1959-2017

After a short, but hard-fought battle with cancer, Theresa left us here on Earth to be with God on Saturday, May 20, 2017.

Born Theresa Mary Busch on Dec. 1, 1959, she married Ron Everhart in 1978. They moved with their two kids to Idyllwild in 1987 and, shortly after, a third child was born. Theresa adored everything about Idyllwild and after nearly 30 years of life here, she never wanted to leave.

Everything she loved she loved very deeply — most of all her family. She worked tirelessly for years to support and defend them.

She was also a mom to many of the Idyllwild kids and she loved that role, as did they. It was hard to peel her away from the family, even for some much-deserved “girl time.”

She loved her friends unconditionally; one could not have asked for a better friend. Entering a room like a whirlwind, always smiling and positive, her energy would rub off on everyone there.

Just a few other things she loved dearly were frogs and bugs, her music and birds, planting a garden, Halloween, Bud Light, NASCAR, the Chargers and forever, Johnny Cash.

She worked and volunteered at the American Legion Post 800 and even carried the POW/MIA flag, marching with the Honor Guard in the July 4th Parade. I remember her telling me how proud she’d felt that day.

Theresa is survived by her husband Ron and three kids, Daryl, Grace and Carol. She leaves two brothers, Bill and Johnny, and five grandkids, Meeka, Jesse, Brodie, Maddy and Jace.

Rest in Peace, dear sweet friend. You’ve touched so many lives. Thank you for sharing your life with all of us. We will miss you always.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday, June 24, at the American Legion Post 800. Munchies appreciated.

Obituary Jean Lewis Reid 1928-2017

Jean, a beloved wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and friend to many, with a smile that never quit, passed away peacefully in her home in Idyllwild on Thursday, May 25, 2017. She is preceded in death by her first husband, John Lucas Miller (1924-1973) and her second husband, Dr. David Hinds Reid (1916-2006).

Jean is survived by her sister Patricia Hulett and family; four children from her first marriage of 23 years, Margery Miller, Lauren Beeler, Susan Miller and John Miller Jr.; four step-children from her second marriage of nearly 29 years, David Reid Jr., Elizabeth Reid, Robert Reid and William Reid; nine grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren.

Jean grew up in East Chicago, Indiana, spending her summers at a cottage on Barlow Lake in Michigan, instilling in her a keen love for nature. She graduated from Roosevelt High School in 1946. Graduating in 1948 with a liberal arts degree from Monticello College, Jean went on to obtain degrees in social studies and education in 1950 and eventually pursued her master’s degree in teaching from Indiana University in 1973, while she was working and raising her family — a true pioneer in many ways for the times. Her giving nature was evident even then as she worked summers during college assisting disadvantaged persons at a settlement house in South Chicago, Illinois.

Jean used her education and experience to pursue a career as an elementary school teacher in Indiana in 1966. Upon her move to Idyllwild and later marriage to Dr. David Reid, she became general manager to David’s very busy medical practice, showing great managerial skill and kind treatment to the many and diverse Idyllwild residents who chose Dr. Reid as their personal physician.

After the loss of Jean’s first husband, and guided by her deep faith, Jean found her way to Idyllwild, falling in love with the town from her first visit. She subsequently purchased her “piece of the rock” and built one of the first solar homes on the Hill in the late 1970s.

During her marriage to David, Jean regularly traveled to her childhood summer home on Barlow Lake in Middleville, Michigan, and to David’s Fitzwilliam, New Hampshire, family home, perfecting her art of berry picking and jelly making. While in Fitzwilliam, as in Idyllwild, Jean recalled the many happy bridge games she and David played with close friends around dinner tables, and the fine people she befriended at Fitzwilliam Swim Club on Laurel and Barlow lakes.

Jean was so at home on the Hill, quickly becoming a dear friend to many and an involved member of the community. She spread her endless supply of positive attitude and selflessness through numerous memberships and service including the Idyllwild Chapter of PEO, Friends of the Idyllwild Library board, founding member to the Idyllwild Community Fund and member of the Associates of Idyllwild Arts Academy.

She loved to read, play bridge, garden, and feed the birds and squirrels that visited her yard in her spare time. Her “can do” demeanor and joy for life were ever present and those fortunate enough to be in Jean’s life couldn’t help but feel better.

Jean’s family would like to extend a special thanks to all who loved her as they did and who looked in on her to help ensure she could live in Idyllwild in her later years as she so dearly wanted.

In lieu of a service or flowers, Jean would like to be remembered through assistance to her community of Idyllwild. Please consider a donation to Idyllwild PEO, Attn. Mary Zimmerman, P.O. Box 739; Friends of the Idyllwild Library, P.O. Box 2183; Idyllwild Arts, P.O. Box 38; or other worthy Idyllwild nonprofits in her name, all at Idyllwild, CA 92549.

I wrote a bit about the hectic time we are experiencing, and I'm guessing that this summer isn't shaping up to be a good one for my container garden on our deck because the breaks aren't coming.

That may not be such a bad thing if a bear is roaming around seeking out yummy herbs and veggies anyway.

Last week on Tuesday, after we put the largest paper to bed we've had since Jack and I bought the biz in 2013, I felt like I was in that fifth week, the last week of healing, after my heart attack in 2015. The exhaustion came on like a pile of bricks and I didn't even feel like knitting as I sat on the sofa surfing the TV. I cannot tell you what I watched that night. It's a blur.

Two people came through for me last week and I just love them to pieces. Kris Kirschbaum covered three meetings: Idyllwild Fire, Idyllwild Water and Idyllwild Snow Group. She saved me and Jack by doing that.

When people say they want to write for the paper, usually they think they're just interviewing people and writing, or writing op-eds. They don't realize the numerous entities on the Hill that only this newspaper covers so Kris was a lifesaver.

When I led the public news meeting last Wednesday, I expressed my exhaustion and the fact that two reporters were out. Lista Duren, a writer, volunteered to take on a story. I asked her to find out about the bear. I could cry because she did just that and wrote an awesome story about "our" bear. She took it further than just finding out about the bear — she offered safety tips and warnings for those of us naive about living in a forest with bears — or, maybe, in our case, a bear.

Kris said she learned a lot covering those meetings. I always find that I do, too, when I get a chance to attend. And I did get a chance to cover one last week — the Idyllwild Historic Preservation District Local Review Board. Boy, that's a mouthful for such a small group with very little attendance. The meeting was to start at 11:30 a.m. but actually started at its usual time at noon. The intervening half-hour I spent getting to know the county rep, Yun Baird, who also didn't get the notice of a time change. But the break was welcome during a crazy time and we found much in common in our lives.

The paper after a holiday one typically is very small as advertising drops. The creates a challenge because a holiday requires lots of coverage, thus, lots of ink. Also, we had a fair share of crime and rescues. Oh, and in the midst of all that, a vegetation fire started in Bee Canyon Tuesday. But our firefighters took care of it quickly. Just so you know, it amounted to only a couple of acres.

And so, this week was no easier. (See the Editor's Log above we just completed to put out this issue.) Some things got held, such as award photos at the school, because of space. Hopefully, I can get those in next week.

Town Crier receives state awards

BY BECKY CLARK
EDITOR

The Idyllwild Town Crier received word last week that it had garnered three honorable mentions at the California News Publishers Association's 2016 Better Newspaper Contest.

Awards went to Staff Reporter Marshall Smith for Writing for his story, "Drama in the descent," a story about the crash of a small plane I. The judge's comment was, "Solid writing, great detail, awesome reporting."

Operations Manager Halie Wilson and Advertising Sales Representative Lisa Streeter received an award for Special Section for the Lemon Lily Festival Program. The judge's comment was, "Jam packed with great event information and creative design touches."

Former freelance photographer Chandra Lynn received an award for Sports Action Photo for a photograph of Idyllwild School's Jenna Arnett running the hurdles during the Middle School Track Meet in May 2016. Judges do not always leave comments and did not in this instance.

Holistic healing circle at retreat

Suzie Bennett will lead a holistic healing circle from 2 to 4 p.m. the third Wednesdays of the month in either the Hill House or the Contemplative Garden at Spirit Mountain Retreat. The next is June 21.

Participants will explore and experience their chakras, learning how to heal, nourish and vitalize themselves utilizing intention, color, sound and essential oils.

The event is free but donations are accepted.

Ars antiqua, ars nova

EDITOR:

I enjoyed your piece about the good ol' (bad ol'?) days of Xacto knives, electric erasers, little bits of paper and glue.

I started with music preparation — parts, scores, orchestration in the late '60s — same thing; with special music notation ink pens. Until a workable notation program came along: Finale. Maybe in the mid-90s.

We did everything by hand, and the place I worked at, Life Line Music, did TV and film score music prep for large orchestra. It was truly amazing the amount of labor.

It's still tedious now, but much simpler, I imagine like setting up a newspaper. I appreciate the memories.

IDYLLWILD

Disappointment

EDITOR:

I am saddened by the events of the Memorial Day Weekend yard sale. Never in 28 years of living in Idyllwild have I had signs pulled down, replaced by someone else's yard sale signs, or crumpled and thrown by the roadside.

Aren't we are all supposed to be neighbors having fun and helping each other? We have so much to be grateful for because we live on the Hill. Let's honor this beautiful blessing.

FRED LEMESHEVSKY

THE CWPP ...

In our mountain communities, there is a partnership between all of the "players" involved in the protection of our lives, homes and the environment. The documentation of this partnership is called the Community Wildfire Protection Plan. This document links the public with volunteer groups (Mountain Communities Fire Safe Council and Mountain Area Safety Taskforce) and the government agencies (Cal Fire, Idyllwild Fire and the U.S. Forest Service).

The original CWPP was signed in March 2006 by the Riverside County Board of Supervisors, Cal Fire, Riverside County Fire Department and Idyllwild Fire Protection District. It outlined what the public wanted to see happen on the Hill, and what the agencies and 501(c)(3)s wanted to accomplish.

It is now time to review and update that document. MCFSC is taking the lead, gathering the input from the different groups and ESRI is updating the map products that are part of the document. MCFSC obtained a federal grant from the Dept. of Agriculture (NRCS and FS) to fund the update.

In the May 4 edition of the Town Crier, MCFSC invited everyone to participate in an input survey at mcfsc.org and that survey is still available. When finished, the update will show what has been accomplished and what is yet to be done by everyone involved. Also, from now on, the CWPP will be updated every two years.

Just a few examples of what has been accomplished in the last 10 years are Forest Service maintenance of the Westridge, Strawberry, Southridge and Pine Cove fuelbreaks. Cal Fire has maintained the Red Hill project, fuel reduction along the Ernie Maxwell trail and fuels reduction in our local State Parks. MCFSC has helped finance and contract abatement on about 2,000 parcels of private land in Poppet Flats, Pine Cove, Idyllwild, Garner Valley and the Pinyon communities.

In addition to the fire agencies, MAST has coordinated the efforts of the Riverside County Board of Supervisors, Cal Trans, County Roads, state and local law enforcement, water districts, County Waste Management and County Department of Emergency Services.

It should be noted that all planned projects and goals of the agencies in the CWPP are dependent upon their budgets and all work planned by the 501(c)(3) groups is dependent upon grants.

With wildland fires beginning to break out in Southern California, it's a good time to write to your elected officials in support of fire prevention/fuels reduction funding for the U.S. Forest Service and Cal Fire. Also, please urge support for continued grant programs for fire safe councils in our state that help homeowners abate their property, including the removal of dead trees. The California state budget begins July 1 and Congress will be debating the 2018 national budget during the summer. Your input matters.

BB gun owner who prompted lockdown talks to Town Crier

BY JACK CLARK
CO-PUBLISHER

Wednesday afternoon, May 24, Michael Austin, 46, of Idyllwild, came to the Town Crier office to talk about the incident a few weeks ago wherein he was observed with a BB gun not very far from Idyllwild School. Austin stated he wanted to explain how the incident occurred by way of reassuring people that there was never a danger to anyone because of the incident.

In the ensuing interview with the Town Crier, Austin quietly related that he actually had carried the BB gun around in Idyllwild for weeks before the day of the incident without any problem. He said he carried it with him because, presently being homeless, he didn't have a safe place to leave it. He stressed he does not hunt with it and does not shoot at animals.

Austin thinks the incident may have erupted on this particular day because, while he was carrying the BB gun, he got into a loud argument with a friend at the storage unit facility near the corner of Highway 243 and South Circle Drive, a block or so northeast of Idyllwild School. He said the BB gun played no part in the argument, but someone may have seen him with it at the time and thought he was threatening. Austin stated that he did not go to the school and had no intention of going there.

As a result of a man-with-a-gun report, Idyllwild School went into lock-down, and the Riverside County Sheriff's Department responded with a patrol unit and a helicopter. Austin said it was a shame that a BB gun resulted in such expensive responses.

Austin said when the deputy sheriff on the scene approached him, he showed the deputy the BB gun and explained as above. The deputy did not arrest him, he said, but he did confiscate the BB gun, giving him a receipt for it and telling him he could pick it up at a later time at the Hemet Sheriff's Station. Austin stated he had not done so by the time of our interview.

Austin related he has lived in Idyllwild for many years and wants to reassure everyone that he poses no threat to our community.

CLARIFICATION

In a front-page story of the May 18 issue, the story reported that Dora Dillman had donated land for a community garden. Dillman said she loaned the land to the group.

Summer reading program begins

Idyllwild Library's free summer reading program, "Reading by Design," begins Thursday, June 1.

Come in to the library to sign up. Children will receive a registration packet with sign-up gifts when they sign up. Sign-up can be done at the front desk or online by clicking the icon on the library website rivlib.net.

Many programs will be featured this year for every age level. Adults can participate in weekly prize drawings for their reading efforts.

The kick-off event for children is the Monday storytime on June 5 from 10:30 a.m. to noon. Sandii Castleberry will present "Singing Your Way to Reading." Snacks are included.

The kick-off event for adults is a "Mocktail" Party from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 6. "Mocktails" and appetizers, plus demonstration tables on food garnishing and crafting, will be offered. The non-alcoholic cocktails have been named for locations in Idyllwild. Special guests will demonstrate how to accent trays with vegetable or fruit garnishes. Learn how to make table place settings look exquisite with napkin-folding techniques. All adults are welcome to this casual evening in the library.

How to get a letter published

The Town Crier welcomes letters reflecting all opinions. Letters should be concise and to the point. They should be no longer than 400 words. Letters must be typewritten, double-spaced and in upper/lower case (not in all caps). Letters must be identified with the author's name, address and weekday phone number.

The Town Crier will not publish "thank-you" letters, consumer complaints, form letters, clippings from other publications or poetry. Political letters during election season cost 10 cents per word but are not accepted the week before an election.

We reserve the right to reject or edit letters for length, taste, clarity or frequency of submission. Only one letter per author within a 28-day period. Letters do not necessarily reflect the opinions of Town Crier staff. Letters may be submitted in person, by mail, by fax (659-2071) or by e-mail (becky@towncrier.com).

Deadline is 10 a.m. Monday.

Idyllwild man charged with attempted murder

By BECKY CLARK
EDITOR

An Idyllwild man has been charged with three felonies in a shooting incident that took place in Los Angeles. According to Richard Santiago, media relations at the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office, Edward Figueroa, also known as “Thumper,” 37, an alleged gang member, is charged with shooting a man multiple times in the legs on Aug. 6, 2016, near the intersection of Norwood Street and 21st Street in the city of Los Angeles. Figueroa was arrested by the Los Angeles Police Department on 77th Street Wednesday, May 10, and booked into the Men’s Central Jail in Los Angeles. Bail was set at $2.1 million. A court date has been set for June 12, in the Los Angeles Municipal Court.

According to the complaint, Figueroa is charged with attempted willful, deliberate and premeditated murder against Dave Campos. The second count against the defendant is assault with a semi-automatic firearm and the third is possession of a firearm by a convicted felon. Figueroa’s prior convictions are dated Feb. 23, 1998, for shooting at an inhabited dwelling; March 15, 2006, for possession of a handgun by a felon with one prior conviction; Nov. 25, 2007, for willfully evading an officer; and June 23, 2009, for escaping from custody in the Acton Conservation Camp. One traffic incident on Hill roads last week

Even with a busy Memorial Day on the Hill, the California Highway Patrol reported only one incident — an injury crash on private land in the Pinyon communities off of Highway 74. At 10:45 a.m. Monday, May 29, Lupita Soto, 60, of Palm Desert, was driving her 1995 Toyota Previa westbound on Pinyon Drive, two-tenths of a mile west of Jerroboa Road, when she made an unsafe turning movement causing her vehicle to overturn. Soto was injured in the crash with abrasions and was taken by American Medical Response ambulance to Desert Regional Medical Center in Palm Springs. Neither alcohol nor drugs were cited as causative factors in the CHP report.

For those who measure time by the school calender, another year had nearly passed in late April 1973. For the Idyllwild Elementary School, Thursday night Open House offered the opportunity for children to share their pride in accomplishment with parents, teachers to relax after a hectic week of preparation, and taxpayers to see where the money went. Jerry Coulter conducted the Community Band in dinnertime divertissement. Arrest in Santa Clarita after vehicle pursuit

EDITOR

The Santa Clarita Valley Police Department arrested Timothy Arthur Jones, 32, after a vehicle pursuit on Wednesday, May 17. In arrest reports, Jones is both identified as a transient and as an Idyllwild resident.

One of the deputies was patrolling in Stevenson Ranch on Faulkner Lane in Santa Clarita and noticed a vehicle driving erratically. “He attempted to get the driver to pull over, but the driver didn’t comply,” according to a SCVPD Facebook report. “The deputy was very concerned for public safety and initiated a vehicle pursuit. With the help of LASD Aero Bureau and their eyes from the sky,” along with tips from our supportive residents on the suspect’s whereabouts, we were able to successfully apprehend the suspect on Oak Ridge Drive without anyone getting hurt. Truly a case of teamwork!”

The pursuit and subsequent arrest was also filmed by a CBS helicopter news crew.

The suspect was arrested on multiple charges including vehicle theft, evading arrest, tampering with a VIN, possession of a controlled substance, possession of narcotic paraphernalia and driving under the influence.

“Jones is charged with stealing a vehicle and leading sheriff deputies on a pursuit on May 17,” said Richard Santiago, media relations at the Los Angeles County District Attorney’s Office. The vehicle was a red 1995 Honda Del Sol, allegedly stolen the same day in Santa Clarita.

Jones has pleaded not guilty to both charges. Santiago said the felony complaint includes allegations that the defendant was previously convicted on the following cases:

Unlawful driving or taking of a vehicle, convicted March 3, 2011; driving or taking a vehicle without consent, convicted Feb. 6, 2008; driving or taking a vehicle without consent, convicted Aug. 17, 2004; driving or taking a vehicle without consent, convicted Nov. 7, 2005; driving or taking a vehicle without consent, convicted April 1, 2004; identity theft, convicted Aug. 10, 2015; evading an officer, willful disregard, convicted Oct. 2, 2013; robbery, convicted Oct. 2, 2013; possession of methamphetamines, convicted Aug. 1, 2012; unlawful driving or taking of a vehicle, convicted Sept. 11, 2012; and evading an officer, willful disregard, convicted Nov. 7, 2005.

Jones’ bail is set at $120,000, and he is being held in the Men’s Central Jail in Los Angeles. An early disposition hearing was set for Tuesday, May 30, with a preliminary hearing set for Thursday, June 1, in the San Fernando courthouse.

Historic board interested in Village Market, Village Lane

BY BECKY CLARK
EDITOR

The Village Lane and Village Market were the focus of last week's Idyllwild Historic Preservation District Local Review Board meeting at the library.

Chair Warren Monroe relayed to other board members and to Riverside County Parks planner and architect Yun Baird that he had visited with Paul White of Idyllwild Bake Shop and Brew about ongoing renovations in the Village Lane. He said the shop is running out of money and has enough to sandblast the deck, make some repairs and re-paint the treads yellow.

Monroe said the front part of the shop was formerly a porch and when it rains, the roof "is leaking like a sieve." The Whites (Paul and Katie) want to fix the roof and add a walk-on deck to the top of it that would extend with railing over the entrance to the lane, said Monroe. "I'm suspecting the county would be interested in the design," said Baird, the county representative for the LRB.

Monroe also spoke about the bar the Whites are installing in the shop just behind the bake shop. He said when the Whites pulled up the flooring, they found old linoleum they were able to salvage and use as a kick-plate on the customer side of the bar. As to when the bar will open, Monroe said, "They have a long ways to go ... The bar's there but boy, do they have a lot of work to do."

In response to why the property owners don't help, Monroe said, "The owners have been in perpetual bankruptcy for many years." He said they're an older couple who live in Coachella Valley. Essentially, Paul White manages the lane for them for a discount on rent.

The board, including Nancy Borchers, Barbara Jones and Ron Kammeyer, reviewed some of the properties included and not included in the historic district. Art Connor, who sat in on the meeting, asked about Jo'Ann's Restaurant and Bar, particularly because of the current sales offer that includes plans for a hotel. Borchers said Jo'An's is not listed in the district.

But concerns were raised about renovations to Village Market, which was determined to be in the district. Borchers particularly asked about the old Village Market sign which she said had been taken down. "It's been torn down, saved, they repainted it, they are going to refurbish the sign and put it up on the side," she said. But she hasn't seen it since and questioned how it will look facing the parking lot.

Questions also came up about whether the owners have a building permit for the ongoing renovations. Baird said she would look into it.

The group plans to meet up with the owners and discuss concerns, and follow up at the next meeting, scheduled for 9 a.m. Thursday, July 27, at the library. The time change is due to the summer reading program.

Snow Group committee meets with business owners

BY KRIS KRISBAUM
CONTRIBUTOR

A committee of the recently formed Snow Group met with a variety of local business owners at the Idyllwild Library at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, May 23. This was the second of three meetings to address issues that come with the flood of visitors the Hill experiences during the winter.

The business owners reported that there was an increase in business and busyness on the Hill that resulted in high volume sales for some, and parking, trash, and trespassing problems for others.

Committee member and Snow Group founding member Marsha Kennedy presented a PowerPoint that outlined three points: The Scope of the group, The Business Challenges faced by merchants and Possible Solutions. She defined the problem group of tourists as "recreational snow visitors," meaning persons who come to Idyllwild for only one day to play in the snow. These visitors differ from other tourists by tendency to not utilize local lodging and restaurants.

The group's first meeting was with property owners and community members. The Snow Group hopes to have a third meeting with law enforcement representatives.

Marge Muir, Marcie and Gary Erb, Sandy and Jim Fulcher, Gary Parton, Captain Patrick Reitz and Brad Rechtferg discussed both positive and negative outcomes of the recreational snow visitors. Consistent problems cited by committee members and business owners were the lack of bathrooms, parking places, and trash bins for the visitors.

Some solutions had been considered and discarded by the Snow Group Committee, but others are still under consideration. Those under consideration include utilization of law enforcement and social media to dissuade the recreational snow visitors from coming to Idyllwild.

Business owners reiterated that the tourists must be made welcome in Idyllwild to help the business community prosper, but that it is also important to protect private homeowners and members of the community. Of particular concern were the threatening instances that occurred this last winter season, the lack of respect, and the potential to hinder safety vehicles from reaching those in need of assistance.

For now, the Snow Group Committee hopes to continue to gather ideas and information from various segments of the community and take the information to Supervisor Chuck Washington to see if he can aid in eliminating the problems.

The group also plans to investigate tapping into Transient Occupancy Tax money (10 percent on each room) collected by local lodging facilities and use the funds to increase restroom facilities, trash cans, and pay for law enforcement traffic assistance.

Rechtferg, owner of Grand Idyllwild Lodge, also emphasized that trespassing is a criminal offense, especially if signs are posted regarding private property and trespassing. He encouraged anyone who has issues to call the non-emergency number for the Sheriff's Department. He used the old adage that "The Squeaky Wheel Gets the Grease." If more individuals call the Sheriff with complaints, more law enforcement will likely be deployed to assist with issues here on the Hill. That non-emergency number is (951) 791-3400.

sprinkler systems. The requirement is not a fixed size for a required meter, but is based on the available water pressure in the area of the structure and the amount of water needed to douse the fire. Different zones, or parts of the Hill, have greater and lesser water pressure available. Those two items create a matrix that is unique for every construction project, and which, in turn, determines the size of the meter needed to be in compliance.

Board members and Reitz discussed ways to meet future construction needs and associated water meters. One option discussed was to charge a deposit for a specified size water meter requested by the consumer. The deposit connected to the Will-Serve letter would have an expiration date to encourage the construction to take place in a timely manner. Once the construction plans are completed and the fire department's matrix (outlining available water flow and water needed) would determine the actual size of the meter required. The consumer could then pay additional money for an increased-size or receive credit for a reduced-size meter. The chief stressed that there is not a set meter size required, but that each construction project must be considered on a case-by-case basis.

In other business, the board formed a sub-committee of two members — Kunkle and Szabadi — to examine internal and external compliance issues and bring recommendations back to the full board. Members of the public Tom Paulek and Sue Nash voiced concern that the board intended to conduct business in secrecy. Board members insisted the intent was to speed up consideration of issues and still adhere to the Brown Act.

Board members also agreed to further investigate the purchase of large quantities of rain barrels to be made available to the public at cost. Marge Muir conveyed that the same project had been discontinued by the Pine Cove Water District because the district was selling the barrels at a loss. Board members agreed to research further.

Caine suggested that there be a way to communicate more directly with the public. The board agreed to hold more frequent workshops where the board and public can have conversations about issues and concerns. The next workshop will be held at the Idyllwild Water District at 9 a.m. on Monday, June 5.

Hoagland also brought two items to the attention of the board for future consideration. One concerned Idyllwild Arts' deposit for unspecified future work, and the other concerned simplification of water usage for future construction of the Idyllwild Community Center. Two other items were tabled to the next meeting: Consideration of supervisory staff vacancies and resumed search for a permanent general manager.

The open session concluded at 8:15 p.m. and went into closed session regarding the performance of their interim general manager.

The next regular meeting will be held Wednesday, June 21 at 6 p.m. at the water district office.

CREATURE CORNER

BY JANICE MURASKO

Last week in "Days of Our Nine Lives," the ARF cats welcomed Crue and Jet, two new ARF dogs.

Anabel: Well, that was a quiet weekend.

George: No kidding. And next weekend will be even quieter.

Bobbie: Boy, that's the truth!

Anabel: Why do you guys say that?

Bobbie: Saturday is the ARF beer festival. You know, the event that raises the money to keep ARF's doors open.

Tinkerbell: I've heard about it and that it's a lot of fun.

Bobbie: So, we kinda hope all the humans are at the festival instead of coming here.

Tinkerbell: Will Jet and Crue go to the festival?

Bobbie: No, I don't think so. All the ARF volunteers will be so, so busy pouring beer and taking care of the guests.

Tinkerbell: How about us cats?

Bobbie: Heck no! That would be too stressful for us. We'll stay here.

Anabel: I know I want to stay here. I'm much more comfortable now. I like interacting with the humans and cats!

Pepper: (Entering the cattery with two dogs). Look who has come to pay a visit! Jet and Crue.

George: Hi, there!
Crue: Hello, cats! I'm Crue, and this is my daughter, Jet.
George: So, you like cats?
Jet: You guys are fine. We could live with one of you, no problem.
George: Glad to hear it!
Crue: How long do you think we will be with our foster?
Tinkerbell: Why, are you unhappy?
Crue: Heck no! We love him, but we'd like a forever home.
Jet: Maybe one together.
Bobbie: We know how you feel. We all want a forever home and a forever family.
Pepper: We all have to be patient and wait for the perfect human to come along.

Just how long can these four-leggeds be patient? Be sure to keep up with the animal antics of "Days of Our Nine Lives" each week. Bear

Why are we suddenly seeing bears in these parts? Brennan confirmed that there is no native bear population in the San Jacinto Mountains. "They live in the San Bernardino Mountains, north of I-10." He says, "Their primary food is grass which cures at this time of year, so they're foraging. Also, the young are dispersing, and yearling males travel long distances. Their range is 186 miles."

Bears rarely travel south of the I-10 freeway. The last time the Town Crier reported bears in Idyllwild was the summer of 1999 when one showed up at Stone Creek and Buckhorn Camp. Brennan also remembers the Idyllwild bear in 1999, as well as "a couple of years in the early 2000s" when there were bears in the vicinity. But he said, "This is the first time we've ever had a bear show up in Indio."

He said it doesn't work to transport them back to the San Bernardino Mountains, though. "We don't relocate bears. They won't stay where we put them; they wander." Brennan continued, "Once the bear settles down, its area is 1 to 3 square miles."

As interesting as it might seem to have a bear visit Idyllwild, this wild animal has already shown that it can damage property and eat farm animals. If it gets acculturated to humans, it will become problematic.

While this bear is exploring the area near Idyllwild, our job is to discourage it from taking up residence in or near town, Brennan said. "Bears have a keen sense of smell," he said. "They will go after fruit, pet food, hummingbird feeders, human food and compost piles. Put these things away

Bear precautions in town:

- Remove/put away anything edible or smelly
- Garbage: Use bear-proof containers until pick-up or dump run
- Food: Keep indoors in odor-free containers, put away picnic leftovers
- Pet food and bird-feeder: Store indoors
- Fruit trees: Protect with electric fencing, pick up fallen fruit
- Compost piles: Remove them

Bear precautions at campsite or trail:

- Food: Put it in bear-proof containers or in a car trunk, not in your tent
 - Camp: Clean up immediately after meals
 - Hiking: Make enough noise to avoid surprising a bear
 - Bear encounter: Don't approach, don't run away. Make noise and appear as large as possible. Give the bear space to leave.
- Bear information on the California Department of Fish and Wildlife website at: wildlife.ca.gov/Conservation/Mammals/Black-Bear and wildlife.ca.gov/Keep-Me-Wild or get rid of them. Clean your grills. Secure your garbage or take it to the dump. Rid your yard of odors that might attract the bear."

Idyllwild Summer Concert Series set to go

July 6 is the first concert in the 2017 series

BY MARSHALL SMITH
STAFF REPORTER

The 2017 Idyllwild Summer Concert Series that once looked as if it would be cancelled is set to go. Some lineup details are still being worked out, including the closing act for the series, but most of the lineup is in place.

Because the Idyllwild Community Center site that has allowed the ISCS will be closed for construction during the summer of 2017, the popular series looked as if it would be homeless this year. But local businessman Jay Johnson offered his property, directly across from ICC, for this year's eight-concert series. "I just wanted to help the community," said Johnson.

ISCS Producer Ken Dahleen and his board have worked out the infrastructure challenges and the series is set to begin on Thursday, July 6. Challenges included installing a new power pole by Southern California Edison and substantial new county permitting fees that significantly increased the series' budget. Fortunately, Riverside County 3rd District Supervisor Chuck Washington awarded a grant of $2,500 to ISCS to help defray infrastructure budget increases that arose from having to stage the series in an entirely new location. The series is set to return to ICC, in its new amphitheater, in the summer of 2018, if construction moves as presently scheduled.

And who better to open the 2017 series than wildly popular Lisa Haley and her Zydekats. Haley and group serve up Cajun- and Creole-spiced music that has proven an infectious dance-inducing bayou bounty. Lisa and her Kats take the stage at 7 p.m. on July 6.

Each year, Dahleen and the board begin the series without full funding. They contract headliners and support acts without knowing if community donations and sponsor support will fully fund the series. There is no admission charge for the eight-week series. It is scheduled on Thursdays as an entertainment gift and opportunity for locals, not on weekends when more tourists would be

The 2017 headliners
Concerts are Thursdays at 6:15 p.m.

Opening acts TBA

- July 6: Lisa Haley and the Zydekats
- July 13: Southbound Classic Rock & Roll
- July 20: Lisa & the Country Gents
- July 27: TBA
- Aug 3: Terri Olsen and the Perfect Blend in town. And, for all the years the series has been offered, the community has responded generously to support and anchor Dahleen's budgetary gamble.

Anyone wishing to become series sponsors should contact Dahleen at 951-659-7009 and/or mail checks directly to ISCS at P.O. Box 1542, Idyllwild, CA 92549.

Library offers summer learning opportunities

BY MARSHALL SMITH
STAFF REPORTER

The Idyllwild Library hosts an ambitious agenda of summer learning opportunities for children, teen and adults beginning in early June and running through July.

"Reading by Design" is the summer reading program that takes place from 10:30 a.m. to noon weekly beginning Monday, June 5. Sandii Castleberry leads off with "Singing Your Way to Reading."

Subsequent sessions led by other presenters include "Body Science" (Tawny Harrington, June 12), "The Creative Teacher" (Sherri Domenigoni, June 19), "Numbers in Action" (Rachel Torrey, June 26), "Celebrate Postal Workers Appreciation Day" (Idyllwild Postmaster Kelly Gates, July 3), "Boats Float" (Sally Hedberg, July 10), "Color Science" (Ter-ryann Halloran, July 17), the "Summer Reading Program Party," "The Abraca Wacko Show" (Ramon Medellin, July 24) and finally, on Monday, July 31, "A Barrel of Monkeys" with Rachel Torrey.

The library continues its popular STEAM series (science, technology, engineering, arts and mathematics) workshops for teens on Thursdays from 1 to 3 p.m. First in the series, beginning June 8, Helen Hixon presents a workshop focused on balance and levity — building Calder mobiles and 3-D printing; followed on June 15 by Tawny Harrington's workshop about Lava Lamps exploring density and polarity; next is "Origami and Engineering," examining geometry on June 22 with Hixon; Book Art, reviewing metrics, on June 29 with Karrie Morlan and Susan Righetti; the "Structure and Engineering of Towers" on July 6 with Hixon; "Robots," also about engineering, on July 13 with Robert Righetti and Donna Barber; the "Art of Vibrating Colors" on July 20 with Elanie Moore and the series concludes on July 27 with "Mosaic Coloring and Geometric Art" with Don Dietz.

After the library had launched workshops with interesting technical components for children and teens, local adults expressed interest in attending similar educational presentations. From 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, June 6, the library hosts an adult/teen summer kickoff event with "Mocktails and Edible Art;" on Wednesday, June 14 from 3 to 5 p.m., Joe Migliori leads an exploration of plate tectonics and the "Modern Theory of the Earth;" and on Tuesday, July 18 from 6 to 7:30 p.m., local architect Dennis McGuire presents "Man of the Mountain," a personal history of designing and building structures for the mountains.

In addition to these varied offerings,

Wendy Watts hosts video workshops on Wednesdays, June 7 through 28 (call library for times); "Computer Coding Camp" takes place on Fridays from 11 a.m. to noon from June 2 to July 28; and still being developed are a number of single events not part of any particular series: an anime drawing class with Carlos Nieto, a Lemon Lily Festival storybook walk, a henna tattoo art presentation and a National Pet Fire Safety Day presented jointly by Animal Rescue Friends of Idyllwild and the Idyllwild Fire Department (call library for dates and times.)

Visit or call Susan Righetti or Shannon Ng at the library for more details on this idea- and learning opportunity-packed summer schedule at 951-659-2300. There is no charge to attend these events.

Businesses come and go, one returns

BY MARSHALL SMITH
STAFF REPORTER

In Idyllwild, businesses come and go, but few return after an extended absence. Robert Carie's The Elephant Walk Home Store held a grand "reopening" on Saturday, May 27 after an extended hiatus. Carie said the store, The Laughing Elephant, had previously closed in 2007 and that he was excited to have returned. On Memorial Day, his store of unique gifts, home décor, furniture and jewelry was busy with customers.

The Village Market continues to roll out new shopping opportunities as it ramps up to its Grand Opening, beginning Thursday, July 6. The new management tentatively plans four weekends of events, including entertainment, giveaways and vendor samples. On Monday, May 22, the market unveiled its full produce line. The meat section is now stocked with organic, as well as grass-fed, meats, according to management. The deli is up and running under the seasoned care of Gary Budnick, longtime owner of Gary's Deli.

And JoAn's Restaurant & Bar is on the market through Hughes Properties, commercial real estate broker for $2.2 million. According to the listing, the present owner of the 2,400-square-foot restaurant (30,384-square-foot lot) has "a complete set of conceptual plans drawn up for a 30 room luxury hotel with an additional 10,000 sq. foot for commercial use ... Buyer could continue to operate the restaurant or pursue a redevelopment of property."

The lot on which the restaurant sits was once the town square, Eleanor Park, and is also the site for Idyllwild's sequoia Christmas tree. Locals have been trying to save the large tree that has been showing signs of drought damage and overall weakness.

The Town Crier will continue to report on business changes in Idyllwild as they occur.

Steele in the Memorial

BY JACK CLARK
PRO GOLF CORRESPONDENT

Brendan Steele will compete this week in the $8.7 million Memorial Tournament in Dublin, Ohio. He is eligible under more than one criteria, the foremost of which is his win in the Safeway Open at the start of this season.

The native Idyllwilder goes into this week's tournament ranked 11th on the FedExCup points list and 52nd on the Official World Golf Ranking.

B will tee off Thursday at 9:43 a.m. PDT and Friday at 4:53 a.m. PDT. He will play with Danny Lee and Retief Goosen both days.

Jack can be reached at jack@towncrier.com.

Wilderness classes this summer

The Mt. San Jacinto Natural History Association is offering free summer classes in the Mt. San Jacinto State Wilderness.

"Visit a Pluton, Origin and Geology of Mt. San Jacinto" with a Long Valley walkabout is from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday, June 17, Meet at The Nichols Room off the ground floor terrace of the mountain station.

The instructor, Robert Pellenbarg, has a doctorate in Chemical Oceanography, has worked for the U.S. Navy for more than 25 years, and, most recently, taught Earth Science and Oceanography at College of the Desert.

The hike is easy, about two hours, and the class is limited to 15 people.

"Map and Compass" with a hike to Yale and Harvard peaks begins at 8:30 a.m. the same day. Senior Wilderness Patroller Carl Maple leads the class.

Both classes require registration at <http://msjnha.org/events-overview/> where more information also is available.

Society seeks new editor

Bob and Adele Smith are stepping down as the Arti-Facts co-editors for the Idyllwild Area Historical Society.

They decided to "quit while it's fun." The society is seeking a new volunteer editor after the Smiths' six-year run. For more information, contact IAHS at 659-2717 or info@idyllwildhistory.org.

Chess club at the library

Dick Goldberg and friends started a chess club that meets every Friday, from 2 to 5 p.m. The public is welcome to attend this event at the Idyllwild Library.

Baseball

Town Hall Youth Sports Coordinator Cindy Luna gave this report for Youth Baseball last week.

T-Ball League:

Grand slams were aplenty in the matchup between the Idyllwild Vacation Rentals Angels and the Idyllwild Shell Pirates on Tuesday, May 23. Recording such big belts were Angels Chaz Piche and Beau Dillon, and Pirates Hannah Jaug and Ruby Adams. Ruby smashed it on the first pitch thrown to her!

Angel Gaige Schnalzer showed he was baseball ready with knees bent and elbow up as he singled on a fastball which might otherwise have been strike three. Teammate Ian Castro roped one for an RBI hit and then went on to score. Miles Sechrest continued to amaze with line drives to both left and center fields, no tee required!

As the season nears an end, Pirate Jack Taylor is throwing bullets to first with great accuracy. Ben Taylor raced onto the field with excitement only to flash his leather minutes later throwing to first. If rules allowed, Ben may have taken his first at-bat for two bases as it deflected off the infielder. Leading off the second inning, Gabriel Solorio scalded one down the first baseline into right field as everyone wondered if it would roll foul. Kaysen “360” Adams wound up, spun around and singled in the second inning.

Minor League:

The game was much closer than the final score suggests as the Robin Oates Real Estate Padres battled back from a 1-run deficit to score 8 runs in the fourth inning to defeat the Idyllwild Beauty Salon Red Sox, 14-8, on Monday, May 22. In her best game of the season, Padre Ashlyn Wilkerson singled in not one, but two consecutive innings contributing to a team rally in the second inning. Joshua Lilie’s single to third base in the first inning and Diego Rivera’s scoring sacrifice in the second were catalysts for several runs in the Red Sox Hit Parade.

Kai Steigen pulled out all the stops when it came to the Red Sox 12-2 defeat of the Sandlin and Son Dodgers in what was a heart-pumping thriller to the end. Not only did he add to the barrage of runs with a shot of his own, but he also saved a few from scoring with great stops in center field. Darius Esparza drove in 7 with 2 home runs, one being a grand slam. Jackson Taylor went 3 for 3 in the lead-off spot, which included a triple. Adding to all this was Sterling Contreras with 3 RBIs. The Dodgers competed to the end with terrific defensive plays by Roger Gonzalez and Alejandro Solorio.

On Thursday, May 25, the Padres vs. Dodgers game ended in an unusual way, a 9-9 tie. This shouldn’t come as a surprise, however, as the record for both teams leading into this game was, well, identical, at 4 wins and 3 losses! Upon further inspection, the Dodgers have bested the Padres by one game when playing each other, and have clinched the #1 seed for this week’s playoffs. Dodger Oliver Gonzalez was stellar as playing pitcher, throwing out numerous runners at first base. Padre Noah McCaughey came up clutch for his team with substantial hits to the infield.

#1 Seed
Sandlin and Son Dodgers	4	3	1
#2 Seed
Robin Oates Real Estate Padres	4	3	1

Major League:

Rene Montoya was dominant, pitching a complete game on Monday, May 22, leading the Idyllwild Arts Academy Braves to a 5-2 win against the Ridgeline Roofing Dodgers. Brave Colby Sonnier homered, scoring 2. T.J. Rocha of the Dodgers put himself in scoring position with a double and eventually plated half of the Dodgers’ runs. Logan Wilkerson raised his batting average hammering out 2 singles.

After watching Lawrence Equipment Padres batting practice on May 23, it was clear that Calista Nowell and Kylie Piche would contribute to their team in a big way. That they did, finding themselves on base in the 9-8 defeat of the Braves. Calista chipped in with a single and Kylie with a walk. Braves players Manny Guzman drilled in a home run, Colby drove in 2 RBIs and Natalie Lovett-Johnson added to the fun, scoring a run of her own.

Despite their loss to the Braves earlier in the week, the Dodgers showed a flair for the dramatic in their subsequent games. Coming into the last innings on the losing end of their final two games, they scored 6 on Wednesday, May 24, and four on Thursday, May 25, for go-ahead wins. In Wednesday’s contest against the Padres, Dominic Esparza pitched a winning and complete game, defeating the Padres 8-3. Padre Tagan Brown displayed her quick, agile moves at second base while fielding the ball and nabbing runners at first. Offensively, she took a base on balls, starting the Padres rally in the third inning.

Again, on Thursday, the Dodgers entered the ninth inning staring at another potential loss to the Braves, a team they had yet to conquer. They were down 2-0, with one out remaining. T.J. walked, Logan shot a single and Alex O’Neil also walked. Finn Carpenter stepped to the plate, knowing he was the pitcher who gave up the 2 runs to the Braves. However, the story ends with Finn becoming the redemptive superhero as he launched a grand slam for the 4-2 win.

PISCES

March 21 – April 19
There is no harm in asking, Aries, so ask. Don't be surprised, however, if you have to make a compromise. A crisis in faith comes to an end for a loved one.

April 20 – May 20
Yes, Taurus, the project will be a total bore, but it must be done. It is the steppingstone to where you want to be. A book inspires a change.

May 21 – June 21
Understanding comes at a price this week. You will have to step on some toes to get the information you need, Gemini. A truce is reached.

June 22 – July 22
Young friends bring a new solution to an old problem. Give it a try, Cancer. You just might like the results. Finances shape up with an increase in revenue.

July 23 – August 22
Keep it short, Leo. The more you say, the less that will be heard. A favor is returned but not in the way expected. Be gracious. A letter proves insightful.

August 23 – September 22
Brilliant, Virgo! You take the initiative to resolve an issue, and you succeed. Celebrate with outdoor fun. A health problem recurs. Time to try something new.

September 23 – October 22
You're usually right, but not this time, Libra. Your instincts are off, way off. Step aside. A test proves tricky. Slow down and read carefully.

October 23 – November 21
Efforts to go green come to a screeching halt with a change in legislation. Work around it, Scorpio. There is a way. The chain of command is broken.

November 22 – December 21
Keep your eye on the prize, Sagittarius. It truly is yours for the taking. A colleague's courage amazes you. Take a cue from them.

December 22 – January 19
The urge to travel hits, and luckily for you, there is a trip in the making. Take up the offer, Capricorn, whenever it presents itself. A mistake is corrected.

January 20 – February 18
Listlessness sets in, and it's up to you to find the solution, Aquarius. A colleague surprises you with their keen observation. Take it to heart.

February 19 – March 20
Take a look around, Pisces. See anything in your home that could use some sprucing up? This is the week to do it, as help will be on hand and time will be available.

From ocean to mountain, Lareé Gibson chronicles her life in song

By MARSHALL SMITH STAFF REPORTER

"I have a message in my music," said singer/songwriter and Idyllwild resident Lareé Gibson. "It is, 'Live for today. Every day is a gift.'"

Gibson's life has unfolded like a wave — with her life and career being carried literally from sea to mountain with music as the vehicle.

Born in Long Beach into a musical family in which her father and two brothers played trumpet and everyone sang, Lareé remembers also wanting to play trumpet. She was 3 and already singing. At 12, she taught herself how to play piano, now her principal instrument of choice.

"The summer I was 12, my parents bought a Kawai piano for me," she said. "I spent the entire summer on the piano bench at the keyboard. At 14, I played and sang for the first time in public, at a school concert. I sang and played 'Both Sides Now,' a Judy Collins' hit. At 17, I played my first professional gig, a wedding where I played and sang 'We've Only Just Begun.'"

As many did, Laree played clubs in the evening, composed in her free time, recorded and submitted demos, and worked full-time day jobs to pay the bills.

In 1999, a severe car crash changed the course of Lareé's life. She required neck surgery, and months of recuperation and rehabilitation. "During that time, I focused on my life's purpose, music. The accident drove home the point that I needed to continue to compose, sing and play. I felt as if I had been given a second chance and began to do more volunteer work, performing for and working on behalf of veterans.

"Soon after, I began playing and singing on cruise ships — Holland America and P&O Cruises." The nine-year, ocean-based career afforded Lareé the opportunity to see much of the world. "I met people from all over the world and came to understand that we are all the same, basically. We all want to be acknowledged — to tell our stories to others and hear theirs in return.

In October 2015, Lareé and husband Bryan Whitley Goodhead bought a home in Idyllwild, completing her transition from sea to Hill. "We fought hard to be here; our escrow was difficult," she recalled. "Those of us who are here and stay have all come together in this place for a purpose. We have chosen and we are chosen. Idyllwild seems so open and authentic. We are thrilled to be here.

"Nothing thrills me more than to develop original music and to collaborate with others."

Lareé gigs in Palm Springs, plays regularly at Mile High Café and collaborates with other Idyllwild musicians on their original music. "We are so happy to be here," she said.

Seasons

Ancient Greeks used myths to explain many things, including the change in seasons. In one of these myths, Hades, god of the underworld, fell in love with Persephone, daughter of the agricultural goddess, Demeter. Hades knew that Demeter would not permit him to marry Persephone, so he kidnapped her and took her to the underworld.

When Demeter found out her daughter had been kidnapped, she became upset and stopped caring for the crops. People began to starve, and Zeus ordered Hades to return Persephone to Demeter. There was just one problem. Persephone had gotten hungry and eaten some pomegranate seeds in the underworld. By law, anyone who took something from the underworld had to stay there. Because Persephone had eaten so little, Zeus was able to make an exception and allow her to live with her mother for half the year and with Hades for the other half.

When Persephone was with her, Demeter was happy and the crops thrived, creating spring and summer. When Persephone had to leave, Demeter became sad and the crops withered away, creating fall and winter.

Mountain Garden Tour June 10

Idyllwild Garden Club's ever popular Mountain Garden Tour is back. In conjunction with the Art Alliance of Idyllwild, each garden will have a Plein Air artist painting on site until about 2 p.m.

There are four unique gardens, seldom seen by the casual visitor, and will culminate at the fifth one, the Village Garden at the Idyllwild Area Historical Society museum where free refreshments will be offered.

This self-guided tour, with docents on site, teaches how mountain gardeners have planted attractive native plants with popular garden varieties for year-round flowering and gorgeous foliage.

The event is from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, June 10. On that day, tickets will be sold at the monument on Village Center Dr and at the Idyllwild Area Historical Society museum starting at 9 am.
