‘If there is an emergency, we’ll own that road’

Organizations looking to involve public more in future evacuation planning

By JP CRUMRINE
NEWS EDITOR

On Monday morning public safety officials gathered at the U.S. Forest Service’s Keenwild Ranger station for one of their meetings throughout the year. These meetings are specific to emergency situations.

The officials discussed several topics related to the current fire season and future planning. One of the topics discussed: evacuation planning. Leading the discussion was Bruce Barton, director of Riverside County’s Emergency Management Department.

As the meeting began, Barton reiterated his position shared in July with the county Board of Supervisors. Barton maintains that tactical information should remain private and limited to the incident participants. This could include the number of children attending the local summer camps, staging areas and the availability of resources.

“We live in a world where bad people do bad things.”

Nothing from public officials on Mountain Fire ‘new evidence’

Town Crier to request documents from Cal Fire

By JACK CLARK
Co-PUBLISHER

Still no call-backs from any public officials with information as to nature of the “new evidence” that was cited by the DOJ/U.S. Attorney’s office as the reason for dismissing the federal civil lawsuit stemming from the 2013 Mountain Fire.

James Nowlin, one of the defendants in the dismissed lawsuit, recently came forward to the Town Crier with his explanation of that new evidence (see Town Crier issue of Aug. 1, 2019). Nowlin’s explanation was that, had the federal lawsuit continued, two USFS firefighters, who were first on the scene, would be called to testify that the fire did not start at the electric junction box as the Cal Fire investigators’ report determined. Even though the Town Crier has made further inquiries, neither defense counsel nor public officials have yet confirmed that explanation.

The Town Crier has already served a Freedom of Information Act request on the DOJ/U.S. Attorney’s office seeking documents relating to the “new evidence,” and will be serving a California Public Records Act request on Cal Fire seeking similar documents.

The Mountain Fire caused parts of the hill to evacuate in July 2013, including the town of Idyllwild. It cost millions of U.S. Forest Service (USFS) dollars for fire suppression and burned thousands of acres of national forest lands.

County and hill property values continue to increase

By JP CRUMRINE
NEWS EDITOR

Riverside County’s property assessments continue to grow. The 2019-20 total county assessed property value is $302.8 billion, a 5.9% increase from FY 2018/19’s total value of $286 billion.

This is the seventh consecutive year that property values have increased since they bottomed in 2012-13 at $204.9 billion following the recession. That year was the fourth consecutive decline in property values. Since then, the assessment roll has grown nearly 50%.

“This is a special roll to me,” Assessor-County Clerk-Recorder Peter Aldana said in his press release announcing the new values.

“It marks the first roll closed with our new state-of-the-art property tax system. I am proud of the work my team of dedicated public servants performed, working tirelessly and innovating solutions to complete this major software upgrade. Their effort helps fund the local school and safety services that make our communities thrive.”

Riverside County’s new property tax system — a joint-project between the assessor, auditor and tax collector, and built by Thomson-Reuters — replaces a 47-year-old legacy system.

In Idyllwild, property values grew nearly $50 million to reach $946.3 million, a record. In the past year, property on the hill has increased 5.2%, slightly less than

Fire season likely to continue into the fall

Winter and spring moisture drying up

BY JP CRUMRINE
NEWS EDITOR

Fire season is still expected. After a wet May and cooler than normal June, fire activity in July was well-below the normal level, but fire forecasters expect that situation to change this month and in September.

In July, the combination of temperatures above normal and the lack of significant monsoon activity began drying fuel moisture, particularly dead fuel.

Both the Predictive Services unit of Cal Fire's Southern Operations Center and the National Interagency Fire Center (NIFC) in Boise, Idaho are forecasting a return to normal and perhaps above-normal fire season in September and continuing into October.

The NIFC's latest report stated, "August and early September are the peak periods for fire activity across the western states. The areas of most concern continue to be the lower and middle elevations across California."

"By October and November, however, California will reenter the fire season." The authors continued, "Concerns, this year, are higher than average due to the presence of an abundant crop of fine fuels in the lower to mid-

Significant Wildland Fire Potential Outlook August 2019

Above normal significant wildland fire potential indicates a greater than usual likelihood that significant wildland fires will occur. Significant wildland fires should be expected at typical times and intervals during normal significant wildland fire potential conditions. Significant wildland fires are still possible but less likely than usual during forecasted below normal periods.

Map produced by Predictive Services, National Interagency Fire Center, Boise, Idaho. Issued August 1, 2019. Next issuance September 1, 2019.

Similarly, the Cal Fire outlook for fall states, "A slow fire season may have resulted from rainy winters in the distant past, but the damage produced by the drought and the bark beetle will continue to exact a toll for years to come." Cal Fire concludes that this "could be a very active autumn fire season."

Longer-term Cal Fire's Predictive Services unit offers a more unsettling forecast. Apparently, the Pacific Ocean is warming again. "The rapid evolution of this warm water in roughly the same position as during the extreme drought years of 2013-2018 is worrisome," the report warned. "Should this warm body of water remain in place in coming months, it may lead to a return of warmer and drier weather for the coming rainy season."

the countywide growth.

Since 2011, when local properties were assessed at $677 million, they have increased $268.8 million or nearly 40%, in Idyllwild.

Within the county's unincorporated areas, Menifee properties grew nearly 17%. Other areas with growth rates exceeding 10% were Riverside, Romoland and Val Verde. Beaumont was the only city that saw property values grow more than 10%.

Despite the increases, most property owners will not see an equal rise in property taxes. The assessor enrolls most properties at their Proposition 13 value, but typically taxes can increase by no more than 2% per year, according to Al-dana's release.

The first year that Riverside County's property values exceeded $1 billion was 1952. Twenty-seven years later, the county property values passed the $10-billion mark. In 2002, the property values exceeded $100 billion for the first time, and doubled four years later. But from 2006 through 2012, values went up and then down, and 2012 was the bottom. This year is the first time Riverside County property values are greater than $300 billion.

The assessment roll lists all taxable property within Riverside County and identifies the property, the owner and the value as of Jan. 1. State law requires the assessor to complete the roll before July 1 and to enroll the property at current market value or at the lower value under Prop. 13, adjusted for inflation.

Another measure, Proposition 8, requires the assessor to reduce a property's value when its market value falls below the Proposition 13 value. The assessor reduced more than 162,000 such properties for the new fiscal year that began July 1. The average reduction was $72,000.

As a property's market value recovers, the assessor must restore any previous Proposition 8 reductions. Property tax bills, which go out in October, notify owners about any changes made pursuant to Proposition 8.

Although the assessor works to enroll fair-market values, an owner might disagree with the valuation. Those owners may file a free decline-in-value application online, according to the press release.

Applications are due by Nov. 1 and are available at www.asrclrec.com. Property owners may review their assessment roll value by visiting the assessor's website at www.asrclrec.com or calling 951-955-6200.

Property owners also may request a formal hearing before the Assessment Appeals Board. The deadline to file is Nov. 30. The application is available through the clerk of the board's website at www.rivcocob.org.

- ### Steps for earthquake safety
- The Earthquake Country Alliance has prepared seven steps for people to take before, during and after an earthquake.
- Before:
- Step 1: Secure your space by identifying hazards and securing movable items.
 - Step 2: Plan to be safe by creating a disaster plan and deciding how you will communicate in an emergency.
 - Step 3: Organize disaster supplies in convenient locations.
 - Step 4: Minimize financial hardship by organizing important documents, strengthening your property and considering insurance.
- During:
- Step 5: Drop, cover and hold on when the earth shakes.
 - Step 6: Improve safety after earthquakes by evacuating if necessary, helping the injured and preventing further injuries or damage.
- After:
- Step 7: Restore daily life by reconnecting with others, repairing damage and rebuilding community.

They might plant secondary devices at these locations," Barton commented on the need to withhold some information from the public.

However, he also was adamant that past emergency plans, including evacuation, were written without taking the public into account.

"We need to write plans with what the public should know and they have a right to know," he stated. "The public is our partner and needs to be educated. We need to work with them and give them as much information as possible. It is not enough to have a plan, we need to communicate it."

Barton's office is beginning a revision of the local emergency and evacuation plan. He also suggested that further explanation be articulated at a potential community meeting later this month. Details are being worked out.

This particular meeting began with highways 74 and 243 updates. Shane Massoud, Caltrans's public information officer for maintenance, reported that the repaving of Highway 74 began last week and was continuing this week. Caltrans was still expecting to open Highway 74 with pilot car on a 24/7 basis beginning Labor Day weekend.

While repair is continuing on Highway 243, Caltrans is considering preventing public access until it can provide a full, unimpeded access. Massoud added that this is likely to occur next year.

Fire officials present at the Monday meeting concurred that utilizing the road has been seamless and that they encountered no problems using the roads when needed for an emergency this fire season.

"If there is an emergency, we'll own that road [Highway 74]," averred Cal Fire Division Chief Bill Weiser.

Aware of the road conditions and limitations, fire and law enforcement officials have kept in close communication with the local summer camps. They want to keep apprised of the youth population and to ensure camps have arrangements for transportation, such as buses, off the hill in case an emergency were to occur.

Some of the other evacuation topics included the efforts to acquire, install and operate an emergency alert system on the entire hill, according to Barton. His office is seeking funds from the state to expand WNKI's footprint and acquire sirens.

"It's a good alternative to gain attention, but sirens do not give information," Barton added. As a new system is installed, he articulated that an extensive public education campaign will be needed to explain its purpose and how to get alerts with specific information, such as listening to WNKI-AM 1610, RivCoReady or reverse 911 (visit www.rivcoready.org/AlertRivCo to sign up).

Riverside Sheriff's Lt. Al Campos and Weiser recommended that the sheriff's door-to-door communication continue as part of the evacuation process.

Barton agreed and said, "We'll use all the tools in the toolbox."

Another critical issue briefly discussed was how to encourage residents to evacuate when it is ordered. Too many residents remain and that puts a strain on resources. Weiser estimated that perhaps only 20 to 25 percent of residents evacuate with the notice.

Ensuring the protection of those who stay can defer resources from fighting the actual fire, several officials said.

"While they believe they are assuming the risk for themselves, they can put others in danger if they need help," said Forest Service Chief Mike Nobles.

While emergencies are unplanned and every fire is different, these public officials have organized and conducted more than a dozen successful evacuations in the county over the past decade. Two of these — the Mountain and Cranston fires — were in the past six years.

Joining Barton were representatives from Cal Fire, Idyllwild Fire Department, the U.S. Forest Service (the supervisor's office and the local San Jacinto Ranger district), the Riverside County Sheriff's Department, the California Highway Patrol and Caltrans.

Life Tribute

Jeffrey Derrik Meltzer
1941-2019

Jeffrey Derrik Meltzer, beloved husband, father and grandfather passed on to another adventure July 8, 2019 at his home in Idyllwild, California. Jeff was born July 24, 1941 in San Diego to Jack Edward and Virginia Dell Meltzer.

Jeff graduated from San Diego Hoover High School in 1959. During his teens and into his 20s, Jeff spent most of his time at or in the ocean. His big joy was crewing on a 4-mast schooner, twice for the annual Ensenada, Mexico race. He also owned a Lido 14 sailboat.

Shortly after graduating from high school, Jeff joined the army. He went to the Airborne School 101st Airborne Division (Screaming Eagles). He trained as a helicopter mechanic and parachutist. He had 13 jumps to be proud of.

When Jeff's tour in the army ended, he returned home to San Diego. He attended San Diego City College while working at the San Diego Zoo as a tour bus driver. He threw bread to the bears and told stories to his passengers.

Wanting an adventure, he and a friend in 1966 hopped on a bus to Denver, Colorado. There, he met and married Nancy Williams. After they returned to San Diego, Jeff and Nancy purchased six acres of undeveloped land in the back country of San Diego County.

Jeff could accomplish anything he set his mind to and he built a two-and-a-half story, 4,220 square-foot home for his family. He accomplished this while working for Pac Bell, and later, AT&T Telephone Company.

After 25 years and having raised three sons, Jeff retired. He and Nancy moved "to town." He and Nancy moved to Idyllwild. He installed and maintained numerous phone systems in real estate offices, the fire department and businesses all over the hill and beyond.

Jeff helped keep the Gastrognome up and running. Some wondered who that bearded man was sitting at table 51, his favorite table, or inside at the bar eating his favorite lunch of black beans and sausage soup while huddling over a sudoku puzzle.

Jeff loved the ocean — swimming or sailing — it didn't matter. He enjoyed watching NFL games, particularly the Chargers. He also loved playing card games with his family and poker with his buddies.

Jeff with his slow, easy-going manner is survived by his wife Nancy of 35 years, his three sons Justin, Derrick and Karson, six grandsons, one sister and brother-in-law, one nephew and many friends.

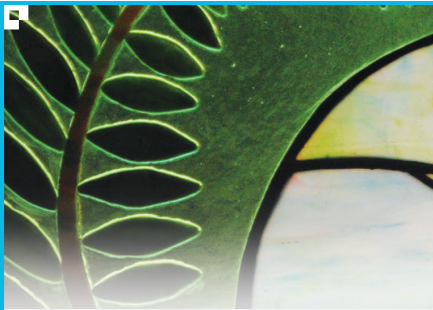

Please join Jeff's family and friends in a celebration of his life on Aug. 24, 2019 at 5 p.m. at Calvary Chapel located at 29374 Highway 243, Mountain Center. Please bring your favorite finger food to share.

The library needs items for time capsule

The library is looking for items for a time capsule that will remain in the library for the next 25 years.

If you have memorabilia, old library cards, a child's drawing, a receipt for fines paid, or old catalog cards, newspaper/newsletter articles on people or events in the past, a craft that a child completed years ago, letters from children or adults describing what the library has meant to them, please bring them to the library for possible inclusion in the time capsule.

Please note that not everything will necessarily be included. A committee will choose those items that fit and, if donors would like, their items can be returned to them if they are not included.

Warroad Pioneer, R.I.P.

By JACK CLARK
Co-Publisher

The Town Crier’s Membership model — and the resultant increased advertising by businesses and non-profits — have saved your hill newspaper from the fate suffered by many community papers throughout our country.

The New York Times just recently published a sad story about a small-town newspaper in Warroad, Minnesota — the Warroad Pioneer — which folded after 121 years of serving the community. Now, those folks have no local newspaper at all. Warroad appears to be so much like our town. Reading the story, you feel you know the folks there. We wish they had tried a membership model like the one that is working for our hill. The Times story is heart-wrenching. Please read it here: <https://www.nytimes.com/2019/08/01/us/warroad-pioneer-news-desert.html>.

Thanks to you all — with less than one month left in our second membership year — your Town Crier has steadily increased its active membership over its first membership year.

Our advertisers know that your memberships make advertising in the Town Crier focused. They are reaching folks who avidly support our hill’s community. And many hundreds of additional readers purchase the Town Crier each week at nine local businesses.

Our inquiries reveal that, unlike daily newspapers that get tossed out the next day, readers keep and read their Town Crier newspapers for an entire week until the next issue is published. That’s a whole week of newspaper advertising for the price of one newspaper advertisement. Your memberships have helped increase that focused advertising.

So, if you’ve renewed your membership already, thank you! If you haven’t renewed — or you’ve not yet become a member — it’s not too late to join your friends and neighbors who support our independent journalism. Please remember that the Town Crier reports on the actions of eight tax-supported, local governmental agencies on our hill. They are monitored solely by the Town Crier. We attend their meetings when you can’t. We report what happens so you stay informed.

Thank you, also, to those of you who come to our weekly news meetings — unlike those of any other newspaper we know — are open to the public. The Town Crier is your community newspaper, and we want your voices heard, so come join us at Idyllwild Library at 8:30 a.m. on Wednesday mornings.

Social Security scam

Getting calls saying your Social Security number is suspended because of suspicious activity? It’s a scam. The Social Security Administration (SSA) is not calling you, no matter what your caller ID says.

Medicare does not give out DNA kits

The FTC is getting reports that callers claiming to be from Medicare are asking people for their Medicare numbers, Social Security numbers, and other personal information in exchange for DNA testing kits. The callers might say the test is a free way to get early diagnoses for diseases like cancer, or just that it’s a free test, so why not take it? But the truth is, Medicare does not market DNA testing kits to the general public. This is yet another government imposter scam.

How to harden your home

Cal Fire has a free video and app called “What You Need to Know — Hardening Your Home,” on the subject of saving your home from wildfire.

How to get a letter published

The Town Crier welcomes letters reflecting all opinions. Letters should be concise and to the point. They should be no longer than 400 words. Letters must be typewritten, double-spaced and in upper/lower case (not in all caps). Letters must be identified with the author’s name, address and weekday phone number.

The Town Crier will not publish “thank-you” letters, consumer complaints, form letters, clippings from other publications or poetry. Political letters during election season cost 10 cents per word but are not accepted the week before an election.

We reserve the right to reject or edit letters for length, taste, clarity or frequency of submission. Only one letter per author within a 28-day period. Letters do not necessarily reflect the opinions of Town Crier staff. Letters may be submitted in person, by mail, by fax (659-2071) or by e-mail (melissa@towncrier.com).

Deadline is 10 a.m. Monday.

Electric vehicle chargers in Idyllwild

EDITOR:

In response to Frank Landfield’s letter to the editor last week: Idyllwild does have charging stations for electric cars. Well, at least one, that is open to the public. Maybe it should be better advertised. We’re not in the middle of town, but Fern Valley Inn has two charging stations.

We can charge any electric vehicle with a 240-volt or 110-volt connector. There is no standard for all electric cars (yet) but the 14-50 plug is close to it. It looks like the plug your dryer may be using. We also have two Tesla-specific chargers and they get used almost daily. Sometimes we have people waiting in line, especially on Sunday when everyone is headed down the hill.

We ask $5/hour for those who just want enough power to get home, or $20 for a full charge. We give special deals for those staying with us and charge overnight. Hopefully, we will see more people up here with their electric vehicles. We can all use the business.

GARY ERB, FERN VALLEY INN

Evacuation kit essentials

WOODY HENDERSON
CONTRIBUTOR

They say each part of the country hosts its own type of natural disaster — hurricanes, tornados, floods, snow, heat, earthquakes, etc. Lucky for us, exposure to beautiful scenery is not dangerous. However, the occasional forest fire disturbs our peace. We’ve talked about abatement, our amazing public safety agencies and how they manage our evacuations and put out fires. Our job is to simply be prepared.

On boats we call it a “ditch kit.” If we find ourselves suddenly sinking (for various reasons) and in need of boarding the life raft, we want to take a duffel of stuff that will best help us survive until we are rescued. Part of being prepared for a fire evacuation is assembling an appropriate emergency supply kit.

It is best to do this before we need it. Store the kit in an easily accessible place and make sure family members know where it is located. Plan to be away for multiple days. Each family member should add a small backpack of personal items.

Nonperishable food can be stored in a box or chest that family members can lift into a vehicle. If it has wheels, even better (I’m talking about the water and food containers. The vehicle should have wheels, too). Evacuations can occur at night, so keep a sturdy pair of shoes and a flashlight by your bed.

Emergency Supply Kit Tips

- Enough food and water to get you off the hill, and then some. Note: you may be asked to shelter in a safe place for hours before you have traveled all the way down the hill.
- Keep a map marked with potential routes off the hill. Always follow officer instructions and signs during evacuations.
- Chargers for cell phones, laptops, etc.

- Prescriptions or special medications, eyeglasses and contact lenses
- An extra set of car keys, credit cards and cash
- Change of clothing
- First aid kit
- Flashlight
- Your bathroom kit and a roll of toilet paper
- Battery-powered radio and extra batteries. A car radio preset tuned to WNKI-AM 1610
- Copies of your home insurance and other important documents (birth certificates, passports, etc.)
- Whistle to signal for help
- Fire extinguisher (One should always be in your car.)
- Necessities for infant(s), if applicable
- Don’t forget pet food and water (and your pet)

A small fire safe can be grabbed quickly if time allows. That can hold the following items:

- Smaller, high value items
- Family photos and irreplaceable items
- Thumb drive or hard drive with important files

A more extensive emergency supply kit includes:

- Dust mask for each person, N95 or better, for driving through smoke
- Personal water bottles, plates, utensils and paper towels
- Water filter or purification tablets to disinfect water
- Matches in a waterproof container and a knife
- Paper and pencil
- Books, games, puzzles or other activities
- Sleeping bag or warm blanket for each person if weathering in a camp or shelter

If you host short-term renters, post a sheet with evacuation tips.

Why pursue the Mountain Fire lawsuit dismissal?

By JACK CLARK
Co-Publisher

There could be many reasons the federal court lawsuit stemming from the 2013 Mountain Fire was dismissed.

Some of those reasons would be legitimate — “new evidence” justifying its dismissal in the interests of justice would be one. That’s the U.S. Attorney’s/Department of Justice (DOJ) full comment. We have no reason to doubt that it’s true. If the “new evidence” is legitimate, we’re sure the public will agree with the dismissal decision.

But, of course, there could be reasons for a dismissal that are not legitimate. One would be graft, i.e., someone taking a money bribe. That would be an obvious one. Politics would be another, and there are other possibilities. We have no reason to believe that any improper motive is at play here. We want only assurance that the reason for the dismissal makes sense to the public who pays the bills. So why is the “new evidence” being kept a secret by the DOJ?

Since our public officials would, of course, want the public to agree with them that the reason for the dismissal was appropriate, they would, of course, want the public to know what that reason is. Unless, they thought the public would not like the reason for the dismissal. If the “new evidence” involved something from graft all the way down to simple ineptitude — like a well-intended but botched investigation, for example — our public officials might not want the public to know what that “new evidence” is.

So, why is the Town Crier pursuing the federal court dismissal of the Mountain Fire lawsuit, when the other larger, more affluent, newspapers are not? Well, maybe they feel that the 2013 Mountain Fire is “old news.” Or maybe it’s not local enough for them to follow up on. Or maybe they have bigger nation-wide or state-wide stories to cover, and not enough space to deal with the concerns of our hill.

The Town Crier is independent journalism reporting on this matter because it is real news that can impact our hill community — past, present or future. That’s what your Town Crier does.

Equifax Data Breach Settlement: What You Should Know

In September of 2017, Equifax announced a data breach that exposed the personal information of 147 million people. Under a settlement filed today, Equifax agreed to spend up to $425 million to help people affected by the data breach. If you were affected by the Equifax breach, you can’t file a claim just yet. That’s coming. But you can sign up for FTC email alerts about the settlement at ftc.gov/Equifax. Not sure that you were affected? The breach claims site will have a tool to let you check. Sign up for an FTC email update to find out when that tool is up and running.

Got California veterans’ photos?

Over the past five years, community newspapers from across the country have joined the Vietnam Veterans Memorial Fund’s Faces Project.

VVMF is the organization that built and maintains the Vietnam Veterans Wall in Washington D.C. Several years ago, the VVFM started a project known as the “Faces Project.” VVFM is attempting to obtain a photo of every service member killed in action and listed on the Wall.

Today, 175 photos are missing from California. You can help find these photos by viewing www.vvmf.org/Wall-of-Faces/.

Ruiz preparing for reelection

Campaign coffer exceeds $2 million

By JP CRUMRINE
NEWS EDITOR

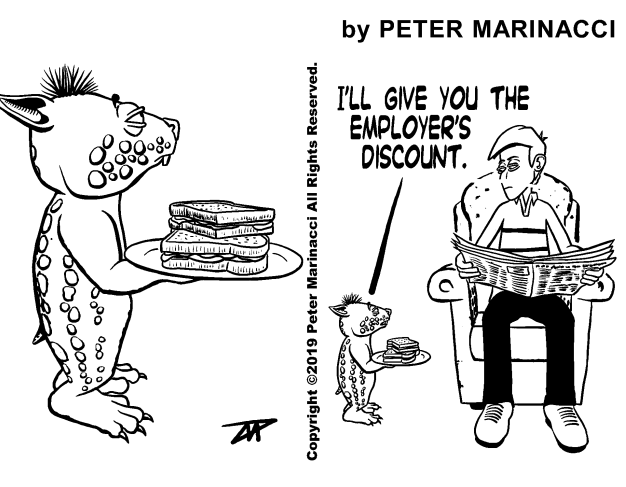

The next presidential election will be Nov. 3, 2020. Presidential candidates are not the only politicians who need donations to run an effective campaign. Even members of the U.S. Congress, who finished one campaign less than a year ago, can barely enjoy and relax before preparing for the next election.

Rep. Raul Ruiz represents California's 36th District, which encompasses all of the hill communities from the San Diego County border north to the San Bernardino County line. As of June 30, Ruiz has $2 million in cash available for his reelection. It would be his fourth reelection. He was first elected in 2012, when he upset incumbent Mary Bono Mack. He was reelected in 2014, 2016 and 2018. Two years ago, at the beginning of his fourth term, Ruiz had $1.3 million in

Seeking EMax award nominees

For the eighth consecutive year, the Idyllwild Town Crier is requesting nominations for the annual Ernie Maxwell Community Spirit Award. Bring your nomination to the Town Crier office at 54405 N. Circle Dr., mail it to P.O. Box 157, Idyllwild, CA 92549, or send by email to melissa@towncrier.com by Friday, Aug. 30. The honor is given to an individual or group who represents EMax's spirit of community and volunteerism. Prior awardees took actions that created a spark sufficient to bring others into the fray just as Maxwell did with his activities involving the environment. The nomination information should provide the reason why the individual or group has been nominated. They should have demonstrated a tangible, perhaps physical, effect on the community. The Ernie Maxwell Scenic Trail is an example of accomplishment. How long has your nominee been active in the community? Provide a description of their vounteer contributions and accomplishments for the community. And finally, can you show how these efforts have been adopted or expanded by the community? The eight previous awardees were the Mountain Communities Fire Safe Council in 2011, Dawn Sonnier in 2012, Robert Priefer in 2013, Annamarie Padula in 2014, Wendy Read in 2015, Janice Murasko/Robert Hewitt in 2016, Jay Mulder in 2017 and Dave and Lois Butterfield in 2018. A plaque in the Town Crier office lists the awardees' names. Later, you will have an opportunity to vote for the top three 2019 nominees. Group noting, e.g. collecting a list of signatures at a meeting, is not permitted. Votes must be on original, not copies of, ballots available in the Town Crier.

his campaign coffer. He already exceeds that total and his current balance is only $120,000 less than his available cash in September 2018, five weeks prior to the Nov. 6, 2018 — election day. Since January, California is the source of most of his individual contributions, nearly two-thirds or $400,000 is from his home state. During the 2018 campaign, Ruiz had several Idyllwild donors but no one from this area has made a contribution to the 2020 campaign. Residents in the desert cities — Cathedral City, Indio, Palm Desert and Palm Springs — are significant contributors. Other cities in Ruiz's district, such as Hemet, San Jacinto, and Beaumont also support Ruiz. Another large source of contributions to his campaign has been ActBlue, a nonprofit technology organization that enables nonprofits, and political organizations and campaigns to raise money on the internet. ActBlue provides them with online fund-raising software, which has yielded more than $3 billion since 2004. Nearly $90,000 has been directed to Ruiz from ActBlue donors, mostly small individual contributors. Nearly 60% of the Political Action committee donations have come from organizations based in Washington, D.C. The largest is $7,000 from the National Air Traffic Controllers. The American Academy of Family Physicians has provided $6,000. The largest committee contribution, $10,000, came from the Doctors Company Federal PAC of Napa, Ca. Another 27 PACs have donated $5,000 each. The Federal Elections Commission indicates that Republican Jesse Fallon Glick of Palm Desert filed papers July 18 to challenge Ruiz. However, no reports or other data, including any contributions or expenditures, are currently available.

Governor’s team working to improve DMV

Incremental improvements — shorter waits, credit cards and more

By JP Crumrine
News Editor

“I’m not naïve about the challenges at the DMV, its technology is Byzantine,” Gov. Gavin Newsom said at a July 23 press conference when he released a report from his Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) Strike Team. DMV’s reputation has been declining for years. Long lines, long telephone waits, poor responses, lack of current and appropriate technology have all contributed to the public’s loss of reliance on a vital state agency. Two-hour waits were common, according to the report, and so are 55-minute hold times at the call center. With days of his inauguration, Newsom created a “reinvention” strike team to review and to assess how to make changes that would create a modern and responsive DMV. The improvements will take time and will be systematic and sequential. “We want the public to feel we’re using tax dollars wisely and that the government can work. One of the most important places to start is the DMV,” Newsom said. The Strike Team’s leader is Marybel Batjer, secretary of the government operations agency. She brought members of her agency to the team. The major concern was that the DMV’s inadequacies and problems would make it difficult, if not prevent, its compliance with the October 2020 deadline for the REAL ID the federal law that sets standards for how states issue driver’s licenses and ID cards and their acceptance for federal purposes such as boarding a domestic commercial flight, or entering a military installation or federal facility that requires ID. The Department of Homeland Security issued this statement in April, “The Transportation Security Administration

(TSA) is reminding travelers that beginning October 1, 2020, every traveler must present a REAL ID-compliant driver’s license, or another acceptable form of identification, to fly within the United States. “Travelers will begin seeing new signs at airports nationwide in the coming weeks to remind people that REAL ID-compliant licenses or other acceptable forms of ID, such as a valid passport, federal government Personal Identity Verification card or U.S. military ID, will be mandatory for air travel beginning on October 1, 2020. Critically important, on October 1, 2020, individuals who are unable to verify their identity will not be permitted to enter the TSA checkpoint and will not be allowed to fly.” The strike team, with the help of consultants, determined that nearly 28.2 million Californians might request a REAL ID in the next 19 months. With this deadline, the team began reviewing processes, staffing levels, and other agency work. Another concern was that DMV was not capable of accepting credit cards for payment of services, such as issuing drivers licenses. In March, the strike team issued a contract to begin the development of this capability in DMV field offices. Examples of other actions taken or being taken to improve the DMV are going directly to workplaces to simplify the requests for REAL ID and redesigning the agency’s website. In a few months, the hold times have been reduced to 42 minutes and 36,000 more calls have been taken than during the same period in 2018. Further changes designed to improve DMV’s service are being studied, tested, and implemented. The goal is still the issuance of all needed REAL IDs by October 2020. Along with the report, Newsom announced several new appointments to the DMV’s management. Steven Gordon, formerly of Cisco and zTransformations, is the new DMV Director. Other slots, which Newsom filled, include chief deputy director, deputy director of communication and deputy director for legislation.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF MARC ANTHONY GALLARDO

Case No. PRIN 1900873

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of MARC ANTHONY GALLARDO

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Chelsea Gallardo in the Superior Court of California, County of RIVERSIDE.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Chelsea Gallardo be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on, SEP 05 2019 at 8:45 AM in Dept. PS3 located at Palm Springs 3225 E. Tahquitz Canyon Way, Palm Springs, CA 92262. Palm Springs branch.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Scammer 411

Government agencies will rarely, if ever, call you. If they do, it will be after they send you a letter — or to return a call you made to them. But anytime the “government” caller demands information (or payment by wire transfer or gift card), that’s a scam.

Don’t trust caller ID. Scammers use technology to hide their real number, but show one that seems legit. So if the caller ID shows a 202 area code, or says “government” or “Washington, DC,” don’t take that at face value. It could be anyone calling from anywhere.

Never give anyone who calls or approaches you out of the blue information like your Medicare, bank account, credit card or Social Security number. Scammers can use your information, steal your identity, get credit in your name and take your money.

Report government imposters and other scams to the Federal Trade Commission.

Confidential teen crisis line

A California Youth Crisis Line is available toll-free 24/7 to assist youth, teens and their families in crisis or in a time of need.

Calls are confidential and trained staff can provide appropriate referrals to assist with issues such as family problems, relationship violence, runaway, homelessness, depression, teen pregnancy, substance abuse, suicide and more. The crisis line is 1-800-843-5200.

Library needs your help

The Idyllwild Library Centennial celebration is fast approaching. The library will be 100 years old in 2020, and a year-long celebration is planned for the community beginning in July.

The library needs your help locating old photos, stories and memories of the library. If you or any of your family members have items to share with the Centennial Planning Committee, send them to Joye Schmiedt or leave them at the library desk in an envelope with Schmiedt’s name on it. You can email her at joye6children@gmail.com, phone her at 1-480-280-2080 or send mail to P.O. Box 1852, Idyllwild, CA 92549. Items will be returned to you.

ALLY EXPIRES AT THE END OF FIVE YEARS FROM THE DATE ON WHICH IT WAS FILED IN THE OFFICE OF THE COUNTY CLERK, EXCEPT, AS PROVIDED IN SUBDIVISION (b) OF SECTION 17920, WHERE IT EXPIRES 40 DAYS AFTER ANY CHANGE IN THE FACTS SET FORTH IN THE STATEMENT PURSUANT TO SECTION OF 17913 OTHER THAN A CHANGE IN THE RESIDENCE ADDRESS OF A REGISTERED OWNER. Two traffic incidents on hill roads over the last week

There were two traffic incidents on hill roads over the last week, Officer Darren Meyer of the California Highway Patrol reports. At an unknown hour on Friday, Aug. 2, there was a hit-and-run on Pinecrest Ave. An unknown vehicle hit the front-end of an unoccupied silver 2011 328 BMW belonging to Laura Sherman of Idyllwild. No one was injured. At 7:15 p.m. on Saturday, Aug. 3, Carl Duncan, 53 of Spring Valley CA, was traveling north on Highway 243 one mile north of Mt. Edna on a black and yellow 2000 Honda 600 when, according to Duncan, a vehicle driving southbound entered the lane coming toward Duncan. To avoid hitting the oncoming vehicle, Duncan swerved to the right and hit the mountainside. The claim of the other vehicle coming into the lane could not be confirmed. Duncan was transported by AMR to a local hospital for complaints of minor pain. The motorcycle was not towed.

Forest Service tightens fire restrictions

By JP CRUMRINE
NEWS EDITOR

Fire restrictions on the San Bernardino National Forest were elevated Tuesday, Aug. 6. Forest officials announce that the changes include limiting campfires to selected sites, increased restrictions on smoking and the prohibition of welding and other open-flame activities without the proper permits. “The wet winter has provided a very mild fire season on the forest so far, but vegetation is beginning to dry out,” said Jaime Gamboa, fire chief for the San Bernardino

National Forest. “As we near Smokey Bear’s 75th birthday later this week, we’re asking the public to take his ‘one less spark’ message to heart.” The restrictions, which are enforced through a forest order, will expire Dec. 31, 2019. Depending on weather and other conditions, it is possible these restrictions may be rescinded early or extended depending on conditions at that time, according to the forest service officials. Campgrounds and picnic areas within the San Jacinto Ranger District where fires in Forest Service-provided fire rings and grills are still allowed are:

- Campgrounds
- Black Mountain
 - Boulder Basin
 - Dark Canyon
 - Fern Canyon
 - Marion Mountain
 - Pinyon Flat
 - Ribbonwood Equestrian
- Picnic Areas
- Fuller Mill Creek
 - Lake Fulmor
 - Lake Hemet

Free uke lessons at Royal Pines
Chris Johnson offers free ukulele classes at the Royal Pines Trailer Park clubhouse at 11 a.m. Tuesdays. The event is open to the public.

Freedom from smoking clinic
The Hemet Unified School District is sponsoring a clinic to help attendees quit smoking at the Idyllwild Yoga Studio, 54445 North Circle Drive. For questions about this free clinic, contact Valerie Velez at 951-765-5100, ext. 3509, or vvelez@hemetusd.org.

Ken's Big Band Staff will please everyone with swing, jazz and more

BY JP CRUMRINE
NEWS EDITOR

Ken's Big Band Staff returns to Idyllwild Thursday, Aug. 15. Led by Ken Dahleen, the creator and producer of the Idyllwild Summer Concert Series, the Big Band Staff will sweep you off your feet with luxurious harmonies and rhythms beyond 3/4.

The heyday of big bands was the 1930s and 1940s. But they are neither extinct nor relegated to museums. Ken's Big Band Staff was formed and has been performing since 1991.

"We were popular throughout Southern California. Organizers always invited a big band to their summer concerts," Dahleen said. Consequently, they kept wanting to perform in Idyllwild, but there was no venue.

Finally in 2000, Ken met with some local people and secured funding to offer a summer concert series. Big Band highlighted the first year of the ISCS, when only four concerts were performed.

They easily draw some of the biggest attendance to the ISCS. "I suspect there will be dancing and lot of high energy," he promised.

Big bands with trumpets, trombones, saxophones and rhythm are smaller than an orchestra, but they offer much more sound and harmony than rock 'n' roll, hard rock or metallic rock from guitars and drums.

Ken's Big Band Staff, while a completely different sound from country, offers the audience the same finger snappin' foot stompin' feelings to get up and dance with a partner.

Besides organizing the ISCS and directing the Big Band Staff, Dahleen also plays the saxophone in the band. He grew up playing the saxophone.

Dahleen also played in the Marine Corps Band, but that is not why he enlisted. After seeing his talent, the Corps assigned him to the band. However, living in the desert and raising a family left little time for practice, rehearsals or performances, so he quit playing for nearly two decades.

Friends eventually persuaded him to unretire and play again. "I was never back to where I was," he admitted. The Big Band Staff is a supreme example of that period when jazz was the dominant American music genre and the audience loved to listen and to dance with the music.

Fortunately for the Idyllwild audience, Dahleen and the Big Band Staff are not cemented to the last century. While he has not compiled his play list yet, Dahleen promised "recognizable tunes from the big band era and many recognizable jazz tunes — older and newer."

"The ISCS original concept was as selection of different genres," he said. "That way everybody would have at least one night of their favorite music."

At 7 p.m. on Aug. 15, the Big Band Staff will fill Strawberry Creek with flowing sounds of harmony and rhythms.

'We found the ancient warrior in each of them'

Idyllwild Arts young talent say goodbye to their long-time conductor Larry Livingston

BY MELISSA DIAZ HERNANDEZ
EDITOR

The talented students of the Idyllwild Arts High School Summer Chamber Festival Orchestra and Festival Choir didn't just perform on the home stage of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, they owned it! Staff and students spent many hours preparing for what sounded like seasoned professionals performing on the stage.

This performance also marked the last for Larry Livingston, who conducted the summer symphony program for 31 years. "Thank you for your wonderful applause and being here today," Livingston began in an emotional goodbye and encore.

"I am inexpressibly thankful that I had this wonderful opportunity for 31 years to drive up to Idyllwild and to try to help children. And in my quest, I have had so many magical experiences with individuals and groups I couldn't list them all, but none of them rises higher in my celestial heart than this group of children, who took on a program that has nothing to do with about being in high school at all, and although chronologically they are correct, they are a bunch of high school students, we found the ancient warrior in each of them and it was a tremendous honor to watch that happen.

"And so, since this is my last moment with this wonderful Idyllwild world ... we play a little encore now, and if you would understand this as my farewell," concluded an incredibly emotional Livingston as he turned to lead his students one last time as an equally emotional audience

Shortly after Idyllwild Arts President Pamela Jordan took to the stage at the concert's opening, she told the audience, "Today, Maestro Livingston will conduct

Idyllwild Strong Benefit Music Festival is back

BY MELISSA DIAZ HERNANDEZ
EDITOR

With less locations and more bands, this year's Idyllwild Strong-Benefit Music Festival event promises to deliver. The event is organized to make sure that patrons are able to travel easily between venues. The popular fire engine will be back this year with stops at or very near venue locations.

This year's main stage will be the new Butterflied Amphitheater, home to the popular Idyllwild Summer Concert Series. Other venues are The Idyllwild Brewpub, Ferro, an outside stage at Bear Claw Tattoo Studio between the shop and Village Market, Park Lane between the Fort and Idypark, and a stage behind Merkaba Tea.

Last year, the event hosted 3,400 people from what event organizers could calculate. There are no tickets being sold, as this is a free event, so organizers had to rely on social media to get a headcount of attendees.

How will businesses be impacted by the event? "The businesses will benefit from the revenue generated by everyone being in town to support the event," said Brian Parnell, organizer of Idyllwild Strong.

The event is presented by Young Idyllwild, Inc. and fundraising efforts will still benefit those impacted by the 2018 Cranston Fire. Last year, the event raised $42,000.

"The money didn't go as far as we hoped, and we wanted to give something to everyone," said Parnell. The applicants were kept anonymous throughout the application and award process to those of the selection committee. Insurance and GoFundMe pages were taken into account when the final award amount was determined for each applicant. The highest award amount was $4,400 and the lowest award amount was $50. Of the 35 awards, 15 awards were more than $1,000 each.

The fire victims grant application is open to everyone who experienced fire and/or flood damage.

Parnell said that Idyllwild Strong has completed the paperwork to become a nonprofit, but that the paperwork just needs to be submitted. His hope is that Idyllwild Strong can become like a local FEMA for Idyllwild because there are no immediate disaster and relief funds for Idyllwild.

The costs for this year's event are more than last year's event. The more well-known bands are playing for a fee so the overhead costs are higher. The cost of permits is one of the reasons. Inspections by Idyllwild Fire Protection District have been conducted for safety during the event. Captain/Deputy Fire Marshall Jim LaMont has signed off on all six venues, according to Parnell. County planning also signed off.

The Riverside County Board of Supervisors voted to approve Community Improvement Designation funds of $2,500 for Young Idyllwild, Inc to assist with the costs of the festival. The vote was taken after the newspaper went to press.

Idyllwild Strong will run from Aug. 16 to 18 with hours from 2 p.m. to midnight on Friday, noon to 10 p.m. on Saturday and noon to 9 p.m. on Sunday. For questions and information, email idyllwild-strong@gmail.com or visit Idyllwild Strong on Facebook, Instagram, Twitter or its website Idyllwild-strong.com.

The festival is free for all ages.

A celebration of resilience

Southwestern tribal climate change summit welcomes public

The participating tribes of the second Southwestern Tribal Climate Change Summit, occurring Aug. 13 to 16 on the Idyllwild Arts campus, happily welcome the public to the Tuesday, Aug. 13 "Celebrating Resilience" community gathering. This summit kickoff event will begin at 7 p.m. in William M. Lowman Concert Hall.

The summit will bring together tribes from across the Southwestern United States to focus on climate strategies and solutions and advance tribal resilience efforts. By hosting the event, Idyllwild Arts expresses its long-standing commitment to Native American communities. The impact of climate change on farming, energy and water sustainability, natural resources and preservation of sacred places will be discussed in closed panels, training sessions and a powerful youth training component that integrates western science with tribal knowledge.

But if the panels and training sessions are largely educational in purpose, as the numerous tribal representatives share knowledge and action plans with each other to take back to their communities, the Aug. 13 opening session is largely celebratory. Tribal nations are being disproportionately impacted by the effects of climate change. This gathering represents their continued commitment to resilience.

Performances by the Cahuilla Indian Bird Singers, the award-winning Earth Warriors, as well as poetry by Cahuilla writer Emily Clarke, an Idyllwild Arts Academy graduate, will be among the many ways that the evening strikes a jubilant note. The Celebrating Resilience community gathering will also showcase the opening of RISE — an art show in the Parks Exhibition Center that showcases hope and resilience in the midst of our changing climate.

Seating for the gathering is limited and is first come, first served. The event is free and open to the public. Full summit participation is by invitation only. For more information, please visit www.climatealliance.org/tribal-summit.

HOROSCOPES

August 2019 — Week 2

March 21 — April 19

A chaotic atmosphere taxes the patience of the Aries Lamb, who prefers to deal with a more orderly environment. Best advice: Stay out of the situation until things settle.

April 20 — May 20

Tension runs high in both personal and workplace relationships. This can make it difficult to get your message across. Best to wait until you have a more receptive audience.

May 21 — June 21

This is a good time to take a break from your busy schedule to plan for some well-deserved socializing. You could get news about an important personal matter by the week's end.

June 22 — July 22

An offer of help could come just when you seem to need it. But be careful about saying yes to anything that might have conditions attached that could cause problems down the line.

July 23 — August 22

Sometimes a workplace colleague can't be charmed into supporting the Lion's position. That's when it's time to shift tactics and overwhelm the doubter with the facts.

August 23 — September 22

You continue to earn respect for your efforts to help someone close to you stand up to a bully. But be careful that in pushing this matter you don't start to do some bullying yourself.

September 23 — October 22

Don't ask others if they think you're up to a new responsibility. Having faith in your own abilities is the key to dealing with a challenge. P.S.: That "private" matter needs your attention.

October 23 — November 21

This is a good time to use that Scorpion creativity to come up with something special that will help get your derailed career plans back on track and headed in the right direction.

November 22 — December 21

While change is favored, it could be a good idea to carefully weigh the possible fallout as well as the benefits of any moves before you make them.

December 22 — January 19

The Goat continues to create a stir by following his or her own path. Just be sure you keep your focus straight and avoid any distractions that could cause you to make a misstep.

January 20 — February 18

A colleague's demands seem out of line. But before reacting one way or another, talk things out and see how you might resolve the problem and avoid future misunderstandings.

February 19 — March 20

A personal matter appears to be making more demands on your time than you feel you're ready to give. See if some compromise can be reached before things get too dicey.

Master gardeners available
The Riverside County Cooperative Extension has master gardeners available to answer questions.
You can ask about how to save water in your landscape, what’s damaging your plants, how to make and use compost in your own backyard, what’s ailing your trees, or any gardening-related question. Calls are taken between 9 a.m. to noon Monday to Friday at 951-683-6491, ext. 231, and from 9 a.m. to noon and 1-4 p.m. at 760-342-2511.

Report traffic violators to CHP
The San Geronio Pass California Highway Patrol is starting a new traffic safety campaign that uses community members to assist in identifying unsafe roadways and drivers.
Report unsafe and/or illegal driving or problem roads by emailing (SanGeronioPass@chp.ca.gov) the date, time, location and vehicle license plate (or a passenger’s or dash cam’s photo). Using the license plate, Capt. Mike Alvarez will contact the registered owner by mail, and issue the registered owner a courtesy warning letter. You get to remain anonymous during the CHP’s contact. The warning letter is then kept on file at the San Geronio Pass CHP office for future reference.
If you are reporting a problem roadway with a high number of traffic safety concerns, CHP will log it and focus enforcement efforts there, using data to track the locations via hot-spot mapping so CHP can deploy resources in high-violation areas.
“This innovative campaign is designed to show our community we are listening, and even if we can’t be in all places at once, we are still committed to public safety. Help us make our roadways safer,” the Facebook post stated.

Tai Chi at Spirit Mountain
Cathy Mauge, a certified Tai Chi instructor, will give lessons from 10 to 11 a.m. every Tuesday in the Spirit Mountain Retreat Contemplative Garden.
She has been practicing Tai Chi daily for almost 30 years.
These weekly movement sessions will be rooted in the breathing and energy-flow principles of the Chinese system of Tai Chi Chuan.
Donations are gratefully accepted.

Steele cut at Wyndham

By JACK CLARK
PRO-GOLF CORRESPONDENT

Brendan Steele could post only a 5-over-70-75 — 145 to miss the cut by nine strokes in last week’s Wyndham Championship in Greensboro, North Carolina.
After scoring an even-par 70 in the first round, the 36-year-old Idyllwild native opened the second round with five straight over-par holes, including two doubles, which led to a devastating opening 42. He settled down with 13 straight holes of par or better and shot 33 on his back nine, but that was not enough to save him.
The Wyndham Championship marks the end of Steele’s 2019 PGA Tour season, since he did not qualify for the three-tournament, post-season playoffs, which begin this week.

Steele’s season’s stats show that he bested the field’s average in the categories off-the-tee and tee-to-green, but lost ground to the field in approaches, around-the-green play, and especially, putting. This season he was 34th on the tour in driving distance at 302.7 yards, while placing 24th in driving accuracy at 68.50%. He was 17th in hitting greens in regulation at 69.81%, but he placed only 199th in putting, needing an average of 30.10 putts per round.
This ninth season was Steele’s least successful on the PGA Tour. In 21 tournaments, he was cut nine times. He posted only two top-20s, his best being a T14 in The CJ Cup at Nine Bridges in Korea last October. His $499,739 in official prize money was the least he has won on the big tour, marking only the second time he has earned prize money of less than $1 million. He finished 169th on this year’s FedExCup list and is listed as the 234th best golfer in the world in the current Official World Golf Standing.

Steele has one more year of exemption on the PGA Tour, earned for his win at the Safeway Open in Napa in October 2017. Next year will be an all-out effort year for him. We’re eager to see him start the new 2019-2020 PGA Tour season next month.

his final concert as the Director of Chamber Festival Orchestra. Throughout his 30-year tenure, he worked tirelessly to ensure that Idyllwild Arts maintained its status as a world-renowned premier arts institution for high school students and learners of all ages.”
Jordan spoke about how last year’s summer program was impacted by the Cranston Fire and how students rose above it.
“Last year our summer was cut short due to the Cranston Fire that burnt over 13,000 acres before it was contained. Today, we rise victorious from the ashes and you are hearing the result of what can happen when young people commit, concentrate and work hard by being accountable to one another as well as themselves.”
The Festival Choir opened the second half of the concert with “This is Me” from “The Greatest Showman” with the audience cheering on performers as they entered the stage.
The students were up early that morning and began their journey to Los Angeles at 6:05 a.m. The time and dedication that the students, staff and families put into this concert, which is a fundraiser that helps provide scholarships to hundreds of Idyllwild Arts students, showed on the stage of the Walt Disney Concert Hall.

So, here’s a colorful photo this week. Where is it?

One entry per household. Contest deadline: Monday noon. Not a race — correct entries go into a hat for a drawing. Full contest rules and guidelines available at the Town Crier office. Email entries to jack@towncrier.com.

CREATURE CORNER

BY JANICE MURASKO

Last week in “Days of Our Nine Lives,” the ARF cats talked about themselves.

Zeus: So, it’s been kind of quiet around here. No cattery meetings!

Heavenly Whiskers: You finally noticed! The reason we’ve had no meetings is because we’ve had no office cat.

Sadie: Indie was adopted!

Heavenly Whiskers: That’s right. The last two kittens were adopted just this last Sunday, and they went to the same home.

Sadie: Aw, that’s some good news.

Pepper: I’ve heard ARF has two dogs now.

George: That’s right. There is a sweet boy named Ryder and a cute little girl named Zooma.

Zeus: Do we get to meet them soon?

Sadie: I believe so. Here they are now!

Ryder: Hello ARF cats! I’m Ryder, and you guys are okay. I mean, cats are fine with me, as are other dogs.

Pepper: Welcome Ryder. So what else should we know about you?

Ryder: I am a Shi Tzu and Havanese mix. I’m 8 years old, house trained and very affectionate. I admit I came here a bit overweight, but my awesome foster is helping me shed a few pounds. I’ve already lost two!

Thomas: Congratulations! Who is with you?

Ryder: This is Zooma. She is pretty cute, isn’t she?

Zooma: Oh gosh, I’m blushing! Yes, I’m Zooma. I’m very happy to be here. I was in a home that kept me in a crate much of the day, but no more!

Ryder: You are very playful and affectionate, just like me. How old are you?

Zooma: I’m about a 1 ½ years old. I really like children and other dogs, but I haven’t yet checked out you cats. ARF isn’t sure of my breed mix. I’m little, just 8 pounds. I guess my breed is “adorable!”

Thomas: We welcome you both.

Be sure to keep up with the animal antics of “Days of Our Nine Lives” each week. Please stop in to say hello to the entire adoptable cast at the ARF House, 26890 Highway 243 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. on Saturdays and from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. on Sundays, or by appointment Monday-Friday by calling 951-659-1122.
