Lara moves forward with directive to improve insurance rate review process

By JP CRUMRINE
CORRESPONDENT

On Aug. 9, California Insurance Commissioner Ricardo Lara issued a Bulletin setting the steps his Department will take to clarify and to limit the time needed to review a rate request from an insurance company. In addition, he specified what he expects from the carriers in terms of a complete rate application.

The intent of his Bulletin is to reduce the uncertainty of the time needed to approve the request. This has been a major issue with carriers for several years and has contributed to their withdrawal from certain California markets.

In May, Gov. Gavin Newsom proposed a trailer bill with the Fiscal Year 2024-25 budget to address most of these issues. However as of Aug. 15, neither the Senate nor the Assembly had taken any action on the proposal, supposedly because it was about policy not budget issues. Therefore, Lara proceeded with his administrative action.

"Consumers are hurting, businesses continue to lose coverage, wildfires are ravaging our state -- and we do not have the luxury of time," Lara said in his press re-

PCWD meter replacement nears completion

By DAVID JEROME
CORRESPONDENT

The Pine Cove Water District Board of Directors met on Wednesday August 14. All directors were present. They heard that meter replacement is on schedule, received a vehicle replacement plan for the district's trucks, and were briefed on a member of the office staff's intention to get the training and certification that would allow her to assist with operations. They also discussed the purchase of a 1/2-acre parcel of land.

General Manager Jeremy Potter's Operations Report showed production continues to be up slightly over last year, which followed a wet winter, but about 16% below 2022. Customers irrigate more during dry years. Their static measuring well, #10, seems to have plateaued, rising a little over an inch to 60.52 feet. Water loss was reported at 11%, higher than the very low figure of 3.5% given in June. Potter said that the crew would continue to look and listen for leaks.

The installation of new smart meters is on route 6 of 7, "on target to finish at the end of September." The crew is currently working on Laurel Trail and Nestwa. One of the advantages of the new meters is in leak detection. Steady flows will be monitored and flagged in real time, whereas now figures are only reported bi-monthly when meters are read manually.

Well #25 has been refurbished and is producing 40 rpm. One of two wells in the Dutch Flats area that suffer from iron ore build up, it was producing half that amount before the cleaning. The cost of the operation was over $19,000. The other well that is scheduled for refurbishment, #26, was shut down when its production fell to 5 gpm. Its refurbishment should cost the same, said Potter, and the two projects will use most of the well-work budget for this financial year.

GM Potter asked the board to buy 15 days of his accrued overtime as he deals with the aftermath of a home fire. The board agreed.

The Board heard that an owner is offering the district first refusal on a half-acre parcel of land on highway 243 adjacent to their Dutch Flats land. The owner says that it was appraised three years ago for $90,000 but would give the district a discount. Potter said he would get the property appraised before entering into negotiations.

Potter submitted a Vehicle Replacement Plan for the district's seven vehicles, with their expected lifetimes. It included buying a new Toyota Tacoma this year. He also said that the replacement engine for the non-operating 2013 Tacoma had been purchased and would arrive in two-and-a-half months, at which time he and his crew would install it. The plan includes selling a 2021 Chevy Tahoe that is in “excellent” condition but is not as useful as a truck. Its ability to carry seven passengers is rarely used. We also heard from Potter that one of the district’s vehicles had been in an accident several weeks ago when another driver attempted a U-turn near the Nature Center. Insurance is taking care of the damage, and the truck will be repaired.

The board heard that office assistant Kayley Rainbolt has asked to begin training in operations, work that would lead to receiving D1 and T1 certifications. This would allow her to participate in jobs like leak checks and “escrow readings,” where meters are read manually for a final billing. Potter, in answer to questions from the board, said that Rainbolt would not be reclassified, but the extra skills from cross training would help with work orders and improve her understanding of the system, and might lead to occasional overtime hours. He also confirmed that the district would pay for the training and testing.

The board also passed two resolutions necessary for the November 5 elections, when two directors, Becky Smith and Vicki Jacobac are up for re-election. As of the meeting, there were no new candidates. One resolution asks for the Registrar of Voters to include PCWD on the ballot and agrees to reimburse the county for their share of the costs; the other stipulates that candidates, not the district, will pay for candidates statements of qualification if they wish them to be included in the voter information package.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, September 11.

Julia’s Trail Tales

Part 7 – Bridge of the Gods, Washington - Up in Smoke

By HOLLY PARSONS
CORRESPONDENT

Julia is a 17-year-old from Seattle, Washington who began hiking the PCT alone on May 25th during the summer prior to her senior year in high school. I was her driver on several occasions in Idyllwild and found her thoughts refreshingly unvarnished, colorful and succinct. She is by far the youngest lone PCT hiker I’ve met. She agreed to provide her story hiking one of America’s most awe-inspiring and challenging trails...

In Part 4 you may recall Julia’s description of the 24-hour challenge crossing the Mohave Desert in vivid detail? She and her trail family, including “Wallmart,” who she met in Idyllwild – endured arduous, potentially life-threatening conditions. Let’s hear Wallmart’s impressions of hiking with Julia and his rendition of the day’s events.

Recent earthquakes normal seismic activity for southern California

By DAVID JEROME
CORRESPONDENT

A recent series of small earthquakes across southern California have residents concerned that they may presage a major quake. The USGS tells us that each year, southern California experiences about 10,000 quakes; most too small to feel, several hundred about magnitude 3, (about one a day) and 15-20 greater than 4. (More than one a month.)

Dr Lucy Jones, a seismologist at Caltech, has taken to X (formerly Twitter) to put this into context. “I need to clarify about seismicity rates in SoCal. (The) long term average since 1932 is about 10-12 magnitude 4 quakes per year. In the last 20 years we have averaged about 5 per year. So far in 2024, we have had 13.... So, lots of variability but 2024 is closer to normal than the quiet of the last 2 decades.”

On her website, Dr Jones, author of The Big Ones: How Natural Disasters Have Shaped Us (and what we can do about them) addressed popular misconceptions about clusters of quakes. “The idea that a lot of small earthquakes mean we don’t have to have a big one... has no basis in reality.” As to smaller temblors preceding bigger ones, she explains that quakes do come in groups, but usually in decreasing magnitude. About one time in 20 a small quake is followed by a larger one, and then the earlier quake is called a “foreshock.” The distribution of quakes by magnitude remains constant, with lower magnitude quakes predominating by factors of 10: For each magnitude 5, we see 10 magnitude 4 quakes, 100 magnitude 3, 1,000 magnitude 2, etc.

Predicting large quakes is still beyond our abilities. according to the California Governor’s Office of Emergency Services website. “Unfortunately, earthquake prediction remains an extremely challenging endeavor...While scientists can monitor fault lines and detect patterns of seismic activity, they cannot predict exact earthquakes reliably.”

“ASK SPIRITUAL WORKOUT”
By Steven Morrison, M.A.

• Editor’s Note: Spiritual Workout is a practice of these 15 concepts: Be Compassionate • Beliefs Matter • Be Present • Choices Abound • Everything Is Energy • Have an Attitude of Gratitude • Intentions Matter • Judgments Separate Us • Listen to Inspiration • Mind & Body Are Connected • Take Responsibility • The Law of Attraction Is Always On • We Are All Connected • We Are Here for a Reason • We Belong to the Planet, Not the Planet to Us. More at spiritualworkout.com.

Dear Spiritual Workout:
My mother is in her 60’s and has been generally rather healthy and looking forward to retirement. But she just landed in the ER and, while tests and such are being done, I get the feeling it’s going to be something serious. I want to be strong for her, but I can’t stop crying and then I get upset because I’m not being strong for her.

Dear Reader:
“I’m not being strong for her” is a belief, like everything else we’re going to talk about in our first two minutes together. Of course, it’s always excellent practice to be aware of what we are believing and to choose carefully — even more so in an acute situation like this when your beliefs will be challenged with every new bit of information you receive and every conversation you have with intimates and family. To get at what you’re believing, I’d ask what it’s all meaning to you. Some examples might be: she’ll die young; she’ll never know grandchildren; it’s so sad; it’s wrong; it’s unfair; I’ll lose my best friend; I’ll have to change my whole life. You can see that these beliefs (not being strong; dying young; grandchildren; best friend; change) are not at all factual. They may or may not be true and good practice always means choosing on purpose what to believe. Others (sad; wrong; unfair) are judgments, which separate you from your mom, the person you want to be strong for. So, what if all judgment was removed from the equation? It would change the energy dramatically and I’d love to know what you notice by attempting it.

Dear Spiritual Workout:
My girlfriend complains all the time that I don’t get her. It’s really frustrating because it usually happens after we’ve had some kind of issue and sometimes it lasts a week or two or more. I don’t think it’s that I don’t understand her, I think it’s that I just that I disagree with her about how to handle certain issues and problems. Eventually it all blows over but then it happens again. Can this ever change?

Dear Reader:
The short answer is yes, of course it can. If I were talking to both of you, I’d start with some questions. For both, of course, what do you want? How do you want to experience yourselves in relationship? Then, for her: Why do you stay in an intimate relationship with someone you believe doesn’t get/see/appreciate/understand you? We always have reasons for tolerating negative experiences and that info would provide excellent direction. For you: What are you doing, vis-a-vis your girlfriend, during the time between when something blows up and when it blows over? I could be wrong, but I have a hunch there might be some unexpressed thoughts and feelings. That habit of not communicating what you’re thinking would account for some of the chronic nature of your dynamic. Your answers, which you’re welcome to offer here, will provide direction about where to go next.

Newsom signs package of legislation strengthening prosecution of retail and personal property crimes

By JP CRUMRINE
CORRESPONDENT

Last Friday, Aug. 16, Gov. Gavin Newsom signed a package of 10 bills intended to crackdown on retail theft and property crime throughout the State. Collectively the new laws authorize stronger and tougher penalties for repeat offenders of these crimes and offers prosecutors additional tools to file for felony prosecutions.

In his press release, Newsom said, “Let’s be clear, this is the most significant legislation to address property crime in modern California history. . . While some try to take us back to ineffective and costly policies of the past, these new laws present a better way forward — making our communities safer and providing meaningful tools to help law enforcement arrest criminals and hold them accountable.”

Collectively this legislative package addresses several different issues related to the arrest and prosecution for retail and personal property theft.

For example, it creates stricter penalties, mandates sentencing enhancements and creates new crimes. It also provides authority for arrests in situations where the law enforcement officer did not witness the crime.

Another vital change is the opportunity to aggregate the value of stolen goods. Even when the crimes cross county lines or involve different victims, prosecutors may now total the value of the stolen goods in order to seek felony convictions. Currently, these individual acts may only meet misdemeanor criteria.

There are also stronger penalties for smash and grab theft actions.

Criminals may now be prosecuted for personal thefts from cars, even if they were unlocked. Penalties for theft of possessions in cars will increase too.

Finally, Senate Bill 1802 extends the organized retail theft legislation permanently beyond its current expiration on Jan. 1, 2026.

Democratic legislative leaders were happy with approval of the package. “A promise made is a promise kept — we’re taking bipartisan action to make our communities safer and stronger,” said Senate President pro Tempore Mike McGuire. “These ten critical bills will crack down on retail theft, blunt local crime, and help our downtowns thrive for decades to come.

Speaker of the Assembly Robert Rivas said in the press release, “To those who brazenly harass and shoplift from our stores: Accountability is here. I’m deeply proud of my colleagues for taking on this crucial public-safety issue.

Nevertheless, Republican leaders were less enthusiastic. One of their gripes was an effort this spring to include language in the bills that would repeal them if Proposition 36 were approved this November.

“Today, Gavin Newsom is taking a victory lap for signing a bill package to address retail theft. Strangely, he glossed over his effort to sabotage the drug, homelessness and theft reforms in Prop. 36 by jamming poison pills into these very same proposals,” said Assembly Republican Leader James Gallagher. “. . . While these bills are a win for Californians, they almost didn’t happen because Newsom wanted to play politics with public safety.”

These bills do not obviate Proposition 36, which will be on the November ballot. Prop 36 will amend Prop 47 approved in 2014. Prop 36 makes several key changes related to punishments for theft and drug crimes. It increases punishment for some theft and drug crimes in three ways: turns some misdemeanors into felonies, lengthens some felony sentences and requires some felonies be served in prison.

Retail theft bill package

The 10 bills, which Gov. Gavin Newsom signed, enhance measures to protect California businesses from retail theft and residents from personal property crimes.

- Assembly Bill 1779 allows combining several crimes across jurisdictional boundaries into one larger action
- AB 1802 makes permanent the California Highway Patrol property crimes task force and eliminates sunset date for organized retail theft
- AB 1972 expands the CHP regional property crimes task force by adding cargo theft
- AB 2943 allows aggregating crimes from different victims and arrest for shoplifting with probable cause
- AB 3209 courts may issue retail theft restraining orders
- Senate Bill 905 allows aggregation of thefts from a locked or unlocked vehicles
- SB 982 eliminates sunset provision on c theft
- SB 1144 online marketplaces must collect information from high volume sales
- SB 1242 setting a fire to commit theft can result in longer sentences
- SB 1416 Sentencing enhancements for large scale resale of stolen property

Stuck semi blocks 74 at bridge project

A truck and trailer, unable to negotiate the narrow, single lane stretch of highway 74 where the Strawberry Creek bridge is being rebuilt, stopped traffic on Sunday morning. Officer Johnathan Torres of the CHP provided these details: At approximately 10 a.m. on Sunday, August 18, the CHP received a call that a big rig was blocking highway 74 near MM 53. It was determined to be a tractor trailer combination vehicle carrying other vehicles, and involved in a filming detail that was to take place in the mountains. During travel they discovered they were unable to continue. CHP assisted them turning the vehicle around. Traffic was affected in both directions for a couple of hours but there was no accident.

Head-on collision closes 243 Friday night

At approximately 7:54 p.m. on Friday, August 16, a two-vehicle crash occurred on Highway 243 south of Forest Service Road 3E08, near the Keenwild Fire Station. Officer Jonathan Torres of the CHP provided these details: A grey 2020 Subaru, driven by a 35-year-old female from Idyllwild, and a silver 2013 Ford C Max driven by a 40 year old male from Wildomar collided when the Subaru, northbound, entered the southbound lane. The crash resulted in minor injuries to both parties, and both were transported to Eisenhower. Alcohol and drugs are not suspected to have been involved.

According to the CHP traffic website, delay in the arrival of ambulances meant the drivers remained in their cars, blocking both lanes, for almost two hours.

Digital driver’s license available in California

By JP CRUMRINE
CORRESPONDENT

Last week, Gov. Gavin Newsom announced that California will now offer digital driver’s licenses and state IDs. Either will be available on mobile devices through Apple Wallet or Google Wallet. These new capabilities will allow residents to keep and show California driver’s licenses and ID cards using their iPhone, Apple Watch, or Android devices.

“We’re partnering with two iconic California companies – Apple and Google – to provide convenient, private and secure driver’s licenses and ID cards directly on people’s phones,” Newsom said in his press release. “This is a big step in our efforts to better serve all Californians, meeting people where they’re at and with technology people use every day.”

These new capabilities are part of the State’s Department of Motor Vehicle’s broader mobile Driver’s License (mDL) pilot, which launched last year. Since the pilot began, more than 500,000 Californians have added an mDL to their phone. The mDL pilot program is limited to 1.5 million participants.

For information and details on the mDL, go to the website at www.dmv.ca.gov/portal/ca-dmv-wallet/.

To get started, an individual must have a smartphone. The CA DMV Wallet app can be downloaded from either the Apple App Store or Google Play.

DMV says iPhones must be at least iPhone 6s or 6s Plus with iOS 14 and newer. Android Users must have, at least, an Android 8 or newer. Android 10-based EMUI 10 devices are not supported, according to the DMV.

Once the app is on your smartphone, you can open it and will be prompted to log into your personal MyDMV account or create one. If you have an account, you may be prompted to provide your DL# and/or SSN# to upgrade your account to access the mDL.

Once set up, the mDL has several uses. mDL can be used for age and identity verification at select locations and airports, including Transportation Security Administration checkpoints. Additionally, your mDL can be used to log into your MyDMV account or apply for a CA Disabled Person Parking Placard. You can also use the mDL Reader in the CA DMV Wallet to verify another mDL holder’s identity in real time.

Security is one difference between a digital license and a physical license. CA DMV Wallet uses your phone’s FaceID, TouchID, or PIN to securely tie your mDL to your device. mDL will only share necessary info, while a physical card will share your name, photo, birthdate, and address all at once, according to DMV.

“We continue to expand the availability and acceptance of digital licenses and identification cards, while ensuring the highest level of privacy and security,” said DMV Director Steve Gordon in the press release.

There is no cost to use the mDL.

The DMV stressed that loading a California ID in an Apple Wallet or Google Wallet, or mDL in the California DMV Wallet app does not replace the requirement for individuals to carry a physical card. Law enforcement, state government agencies, and businesses are not yet accepting the mDL. However, it does make it easier for Californians to validate their age and identity at participating businesses and airports.

Besides trying the mDL, DMV has expanded more services into online solutions rather than trips to the local DMV office and time in lines.

Since June 3, the DMV has only been processing the following transactions through alternative, out-of-office options:

- Simple vehicle registration renewals that are not past the due date.
- Driver’s license renewals that do not require an in-person visit.
- Requests for copies of vehicle registration records, which show a vehicle’s ownership history.
- Requests for copies of driver’s license records, which show a driver’s history.
- Replacing a lost or stolen driver’s license/identification card.

“We don’t want our customers to have to wait for service, and they don’t have to,” said Gordon. “The DMV is becoming a mobile-first operation, and simple renewals are easy self-help transactions that don’t require an office visit. Just go online. It will save you time, and it will save time for the Californians in our offices who need to be there. We have also shortened the time it takes to receive vehicle stickers and driver’s licenses. In most cases, you’ll have your item in less than two weeks.”

Every day throughout the United States, newspapers publish thousands of public notices about events, conditions or actions that affect countless individuals, families, neighborhoods and businesses. Public notices cover many topics, including business matters, liquor licensing, public auctions and sales, estates, zoning, public meetings, bids to sell goods and services to the government, local government finances and state and local elections. Public notice is a fundamental component of our system of representative democracy, which depends upon the participation of educated, responsible citizens.

The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 54505 PINE CREST AVENUE, IDYLLWILD, CA 92549. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be held, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, condition, or encumbrances, including fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to pay the remaining principal sums of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $74,975.46 If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (855) 313-3319 or visit this Internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 122134-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer", you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder", you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 122134-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder", you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Blue Breeze Band and Marine Concert Band to complete Summer Concert Series

By DAVID JEROME
CORRESPONDENT

Summer is almost over, and Idyllwild’s free Summer Concert Series’ 25th anniversary season is coming to a close, with The Blue Breeze Band this week, on August 22, and the US Marine Division 1 Concert Band on the 29th.

The Blue Breeze Band is among the audience favorites that series founder and producer Ken Dahleen has brought back year after year. Leader Harold Wherry has assembled a Motown review that covers the gamut of R&B and Soul, with lots of vocal talent and a dynamic horn section. They are one of the busiest R&B bands in Southern California, bringing audiences to their feet from San Diego to San Luis Obispo and beyond. Opening for the Blue Breeze will be two Idyllwild originals, Terry Jo and Lenny.

Next week, on the 29th, the USMC Division One Concert Band will return to Idyllwild for the finale to the series. The Marine Band has been playing summer concerts in Idyllwild since long before our current series began in 1999.

Conducting the USMC Division 1 Concert band this year will be Chief Warrant Officer 2 Eric Kyne. He’ll be leading a 45-piece ensemble. The Concert Band covers patriotic and concert music from the 1800’s to the swing era. Dahleen, a USMC Concert Band veteran, has been known to join in. There will be no opening act, and music will begin that night at 7 p.m.

The Summer Concert Series is always free to all. The concerts are supported entirely by donations. Those who can spare something are invited to contribute, either at the concert when the “hat” is passed, or by sending a check, payable to “Idyllwild Summer Concert Org.” to PO Box 1542, Idyllwild CA 92549-1542. Or call (760)413-4638.

The Blue Breeze Band, with Terry Jo and Lenny opening, 6:05 Thurs. Aug. 22; USMC Division 1 Concert Band 7 p.m. Thurs. Aug. 29. Butterfield Amphitheater, 54201 Ridgeview Drive, access through the Idyllwild Community Center Playground Parking lot on Highway 243, just south of town.

Fun Day Of Soccer Hosted By ICC and AYSO Reps

By JOHNNY WILSON
ICC SPORT DIRECTOR

Young soccer players, parents, and enthusiasts had a fun time at the ICC-AYSO “Play Soccer!” event that happened last Saturday at Top Field of Idyllwild school.

AYSO National Director of Program Development Andy Price, and his helper, Blane, made the drive from Los Angeles to put on a fun-filled event for our local soccer kids Saturday morning.

The day was filled with fun soccer drills, valuable soccer lessons, and of course, fun scrimmage games.

ICC’s sports director Johnny Wilson and AYSO’s Andy Price coordinated the event as a celebration of the new ICC-AYSO partnership, and to promote the upcoming local soccer season, which starts August 26 and runs to October 18th.

(Parents can register their kids at www.idyllwildcommunitycenter.org

Deadline to register is Wednesday August

21st. The cost is $49/player which includes AYSO’s yearly membership fee.)

Other than free AYSO sports bags and stickers for the attendees, Price also generously donated new soccer equipment to ICC which includes quality pop-up goals, practice cones, multi-colored pinnies, and more.

ICC and AYSO next are coordinating a time and date for AYSO to come back - this time for a “coaches training session”, which will benefit all those who have interest in coaching soccer this year.

Director Wilson comments on the day: “It was great seeing all the kids show up with such great enthusiasm for the sport. It’s going to be a great season. I also saw some of our local soccer coaches taking mental notes from the AYSO professionals - thank you Andy and Blaine for your leadership, generosity, and showing us how it’s done!”

For any questions about the upcoming youth soccer season, please call 951-659-2638 or email info@idyllwildcommunitycenter.org

SUMMER JOBS FOR KIDS

Are you looking to earn some money this summer? You can become an entrepreneur! That's a person who starts a business.

Fill in the missing vowels to discover some ideas for types of businesses YOU can start this summer!

What's an entrepreneur?
An entrepreneur (on-trah-preh-nyur) is a person who sees a way to earn some money by solving a particular problem.

For example, lots of kids have learned that thirsty people on hot days will pay for a cold glass of lemonade.

Entrepreneurial Thinking
Can you see the job opportunity in each of these pictures? Look at each picture. What problems do you see here? What kind of help might they be willing to pay for?

Standards Link: Economics: Students know that entrepreneurs are people who use resources to produce innovative goods and services they hope people will buy.

Who wants to make money?

One way to make money is to get a job. But that is not possible for everyone. Often times kids can't get jobs because they are too young.

But that hasn't stopped kids around the world from finding clever ways of earning some cash. Some kids, like Jason, turn doing something they love into a way of earning money.

Look at each of the following pictures. Write down ways a business you could start might be able to help.

PROBLEM:
Litter around the neighborhood.

SOLUTION:

PROBLEM:

This week's word: OPPORTUNITY

The noun opportunity means a chance, especially one that offers some kind of reward.

Taylor got the opportunity to see his name in print when his essay was published in the newspaper.

Try to use opportunity in a sentence today when talking with your friends and family members.

STUDENTS OF THE WEEK

Mrs. Erica Dillon our Transitional Kinder and Kindergarten teacher has chosen: Gunner Schug and Evelyn Yawman as our students of the week. They are kind, caring and fun students. They set excellent examples for their classmates. They follow directions and participate with positive attitudes in all we do

CREATURE CORNER

Last week in Days of Our Nine Lives, the ARF the adoption of orange kitten Banshee.

Pepper: What I have to say won't surprise any of you.

Eeyore: Let's hear it.

Pepper: The other two kittens were adopted.

Harley: You're right, we're not surprised. Kittens are so adorable. They really light up a home.

Eeyore: But I also have some not-so-surprising news. We have two new kittens.

Whiskey: Of course we do! Can you tell us about them?

Pepper: They need time to settle. But I do know they are 6 months old, and both are females.

Whiskey: Okay, we'll let them adjust to their new temporary home. Any other news?

Harley: The mama of the kittens who were just adopted is ready to find her own forever home. Her name is Yuki.

Eeyore: And she is so pretty.

Pepper: And very sweet.

Yuki: (entering the room) Are you talking about me?

Harley: We were! We are so happy you are ready to find your own forever family.

Yuki: I am. I'm rooming with Pepper. We get along very well. I wouldn't mind a family with another cat.

Harley: Several of us feel the same.

Pepper: Any one of us would be so happy in a forever home. I'm certain it's out there, waiting for us.

Yuki

This week's Creature Corner is sponsored by Lois Sheppard. Be sure to keep up with the animal antics of Days of our Nine Lives each week. And please stop in to say hello to the entire adoptable cast at the ARF House, 26890 Hwy 243. ARF is open Saturdays 10-3, Sundays 10-2, and during the week by appointment. Please call 951-659-1122.

HOROSCOPES

August 2024 — Week 4

ARIES

March 21 – April 19
Impatience with those who don't keep up with you can cause resistance, which, in turn, can lead to more delays. It's best to be helpful and supportive if you want good results.

TAURUS

April 20 – May 20
A surprise announcement from a colleague could put you on the defense. Gather your facts and respond. You'll soon find the situation shifting in your favor.

GEMINI

May 21 – June 21
The time spent away from a project pays off with a new awareness of options that you hadn't considered before. Weigh them carefully before deciding which to choose.

CANCER

June 22 – July 22
Consider confronting a personal conflict while there's still time to work things out. A delay can cause more problems. A longtime colleague might offer to mediate.

LEO

July 23 – August 22
Some emerging matters could impede the Lion's progress in completing an important project. Best advice: Deal with them now before they can create costly delays.

VIRGO

August 23 – September 22
Your aspect continues to favor an expanding vista. This could be a good time to make a career move, and taking an out-of-town job could be a good way to do it.

LIBRA

September 23 – October 22
Disruptive family disputes need to be settled so that everyone can move on. Avoid assuming this burden alone, though. Ask -- no, demand help with this problem.

SCORPIO

October 23 – November 21
Patience is called for as you await word on an important workplace situation. A personal circumstance, however, could benefit by your taking immediate action.

SAGITTARIUS

November 22 – December 21
Don't lose confidence in yourself. Those doubters are likely to back off if you demand that they show solid proof as to why they think your ideas won't work.

CAPRICORN

December 22 – January 19
A temporary setback might cause some unsettling moments for the usually sure-footed Goat. But keep going! The path ahead gets easier as you move forward.

AQUARIUS

January 20 – February 18
There's welcome news from the workplace. There could also be good news involving a relationship that has long held a special meaning for you.

PISCES

February 19 – March 20
You still might need to cut some lingering ties to a situation that no longer has the appeal it once held. In the meantime, you can start to explore other opportunities.
