One dead in Highway 74 shooting

By David Jerome
Correspondent

A shooting on highway 74 near Carrizo Road on the afternoon of Tuesday, June 2, left one man dead. With the highway a crime scene, it was closed to all traffic between Carrizo, later Palm Canyon, and 371 until midnight.

The shooting followed at least two separate collisions involving a tow truck driver, 52-year-old Gabriel Rodriguez of Midland City, who opened fire on another vehicle, was himself shot, was airlifted out, and was declared dead on arrival at Desert Regional Medical Center

At 2:11 p.m. the CHP traffic website recorded reports of a tow truck driver driving recklessly, who then "slammed on his breaks" (sic) and caused a collision. The tow driver then declined medical assistance and continued "up the mountain" and into the construction zone.

NBC Palm Springs interviewed one of the drivers involved in this accident, Brett Moscrop. "According to Moscrop, he was driving home shortly after 2 p.m. when he encountered a tow truck driving erratically near Carrizo Drive. He said the tow truck stopped in the roadway, triggering a chain-reaction collision. Moscrop and another driver remained at the crash scene while the tow truck driver allegedly fled."

A local told the Town Crier about arriving from Palm Desert at a line of cars waiting to be escorted by a pilot vehicle past a construction site, with the highway between a steep cliff on one side and a steep drop on the other. There was already a collision that had been moved to the shoulder.

As the line of cars began to move, the witness reported seeing the tow driver attempt to pass the pilot vehicle, and the pilot swerve to prevent this. The pilot and tow truck went around a curve, the line of cars stopped, and they heard a loud sound. The resident got out of their vehicle, looked around the corner, saw the tow driver with a shot gun, and quickly returned to their vehicle, joining a general and chaotic exodus of drivers.

Over the next half hour CHP officers reported a shooting, and the tow driver on the ground. Witnesses reported the tow driver shooting out his window at the construction crew, another reported seeing him point the gun at himself. Within a few minutes the story included a second armed person who had shot the tow driver.

A June 4 CHP press release said that "Investigators believe that both victim and suspect fired their firearms during the incident." They refer to the tow driver as the suspect and add that he "suffered gunshot wounds and died from his injuries."

NBC Palm Springs also quotes witnesses who said an "armed driver associated with the pilot vehicle… returned fire."

The CHP press release said that the investigation is the responsibility of CHP Border Division Major Crimes Unit. This unit responded to our request for further information, mostly to say that the incident is under investigation. We asked as to the legal status of both drivers carrying potentially loaded firearms, whether there was a shotgun involved, whether the second armed person was the driver of the pilot vehicle, and whether there were two or three collisions. The CHP responded that no further details were being released at this time.

The press release noted that "At this time, investigators have identified all known parties involved, and there are no outstanding suspects." The Press Enterprise reported that the second armed person was detained, questioned, and released.

The CHP is asking anyone with information about the incident to contact Border Division Major Crimes Unit at (858) 944-6300.

MDP President to be Grand Marshal of Fourth of July Parade

Idyllwild Rotary has chosen Mountain Disaster Preparedness' President Marsh Kennedy as Grand Marshal of the annual 4th of July Parade. Kennedy tells us she is "honored beyond words."

This is a big year as the parade celebrates the 250th anniversary of our nation's Declaration of Independence. Kennedy points out that this year is also a big year for MDP, their 40th Anniversary. "That's quite an accomplishment for a non-profit organization. Much has been accomplished over those years to help our Hill prepare for an emergency."

Kennedy adds that MDP will have a contingent in the parade, and anyone who would like to join in and march along with their banner is welcome. It's a great chance to practice your smiling and waving. Email bzperson@aol.com to get the details.

Entries will line up at 8:00 a.m. in spots assigned by Rotary in the streets leading into Fern Valley Corners. At 9:00 a.m. all traffic will be blocked along North Circle Drive. At 10:00 the parade starts.

Locals need no reminder, but fireworks are never allowed in Idyllwild. The County prohibits them, as does the surrounding San Bernardino National Forest. Barbeques are allowed only with permits, which must be picked up in person at Idyllwild Fire Protection District, 54160 Maranatha Dr.

Incumbents lead in election results

By JP Crumrine
Correspondent

Below are the results of the June Primary for the local elections, including U.S. Congress, the State Legislature and County Supervisor. The top two vote getters for each office, regardless of party, will be the candidates on the November Election ballot, except for County Supervisor. Except for the county supervisor's race, if one candidate polls more than 50 percent, the top two move to November. However, in a supervisorial race, if a candidate gains more than 50 percent of the vote, there will be no runoff in November.

As of Saturday evening, June 6, about 393,300 (27.3 percent of registered voters) ballots had been counted in Riverside County. This compares with a 28.8 percent turnout in the June 2022 Gubernatorial Primary and a 35.2 percent turnout in the June 2018 Gubernatorial Primary. The Presidential Primaries drew 30.5 percent of voters in 2024 and 43.2 percent in the March 2020 Primary.

Nearly 200,200 (or 13.9 percent of voters) remain to be counted. The next update is expected Monday evening, June 8.

Hill precincts are among those with 40 to 60 percent turnout in the County, a few desert precincts had greater than 60 percent turnout.

U.S. Congress District 48

After the redistricting created by approval of Proposition 50 in November 2025, the Hill was moved to District 48, which includes portions of both Riverside and San Diego counties. Currently Rep. Ken Calvert represents the Hill, but Republican Darrell Issa was the incumbent in District 48. On the last day to file, he announced that he would not seek re-election.

San Diego County Supervisor Jim Desmond is the major Republican candidate and he captured the most votes of a dozen candidates, including one other Republican. Nine candidates were Democrats.

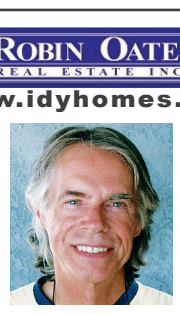

In a post-election message to the Town Crier, Desmond said, "The Primary voters message was clear. . . I think about the seniors in this district. They built these communities. They raised families here, paid into the system their whole lives, and now they're wondering if they can even afford to stay. . . I'm going to Washington to fix problems. . ."

Desmond garnered 40.1 percent of the vote. Marni von Wilpert, a San Diego City Council member and Democrat, collected 20.7 percent for second place.

"With control of the House on the line, there has never been a more consequen-

Three motorcyclists, one car collide on 74, one fatality

Three riders on motorcycles and an auto were involved in a chain reaction collision on Saturday June 6 on Highway 74 near Carrizo Road. One rider was pronounced dead on the scene, one was airlifted to the hospital, the third received minor injuries, and the driver of the auto was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

The CHP provided the following in a press release:

On June 6, 2026, at approximately 3:17 p.m., the California Highway Patrol (CHP) responded to a traffic crash on State Route 74, west of Carrizo Road.

A preliminary investigation indicates that a 43-year old La Quinta man was riding a 2005 Harley Davidson Electra Glide motorcycle, eastbound on State Route 74, west of Carrizo Road, being followed by his two friends, also riding their own motorcycles. At the same time, a 23-year-old Anza woman was driving a 2015 Scion TC, westbound on State Route 74, approaching the... Electra Glide from the opposite direction.

For reasons still under investigation, the rider of the ... Electra Glide allowed his motorcycle to cross over the centerline and into oncoming traffic. The driver of the Scion TC took evasive actions by applying her brakes. The front of the ... Electra Glide crashed into the left-front of the Scion TC. The impact caused the rider of the …Electra Glide to be ejected from his motorcycle.

The … Electra Glide overturned and careened across lanes, into the eastbound lane, directly ahead of a 55-year-old Palm Desert man, riding a 2022 Harley Davidson Road Glide motorcycle, who had been riding eastbound directly behind the … Electra Glide. The … Road Glide crashed into the … Electra Glide, causing the … Road Glide to overturn and its rider to be ejected.

A 38-year-old Rancho Mirage man was riding a 2012 Harley Davidson Super Low motorcycle and was the rearmost motorcycle in the group traveling eastbound, behind the …Road Glide and … Electra Glide. The … Super Low crashed into the right passenger side of the Scion TC which had spun directly into its path of travel as a result of the previous impact with the … Electra Glide. Both the Scion TC and … Super Low plummeted over the side of the mountain, south of State Route 74. The rider of the … Super Low was ejected from his motorcycle and suffered multiple blunt force traumas and was pronounced deceased at the scene.

The rider of the … Electra Glide was airlifted to Desert Regional Medical Center (DRMC). The driver of the Scion TC was also transported to DRMC via ambulance. The rider of the … Road Glide was evaluated on scene and was not transported.

Investigators do not believe alcohol or drugs contributed to the crash. The crash remains under investigation. The Riverside County Sheriff's Office Coroner's Bureau is handling the death under case number 2026-04277. Anyone with information related to the incident is encouraged to contact the CHP San Gorgonio Pass Area office at (951) 846-5300.

Election Security?

Dear editor:

Suggestion for Free and Fair Elections:

1. Voter ID

2. Election Day In-Person Voting (with special/verified exceptions)

3. Stop Ballot-Box-Drops

This might encourage people to identify as American Californians, instead of polarized frien-emies.

Two fires west of Idyllwild on Friday

Two fires that broke out to the west of Idyllwild on Friday June 5 were extinguished before they could spread.

The first, named the Blackburn Fire, was reported at around 4:00 a.m. It burned on both sides of the 46600 block of Bautista canyon Road, which at that point is parallel to highway 74 but the other side of Rouse Ridge. By 1:14 p.m. it was reported as 17 acres and 100% contained.

There was also a smaller fire near the Cranston Ranger Station on Highway 74, called — to the chagrin of locals —the "Cranston" Fire. Discovered shortly before noon, it burned just over 2 acres of federally managed land.

By the afternoon it was renamed the "Rouse Fire." The Hemet office of RSO shared on Facebook photos of officers assisting CAL FIRE, with shovels near scorched grass.

Third Monday Players Bring Our Lady of the Freedoms and Some of Her Friends to Middle Ridge

The Third Monday Players have a special program this month in honor of our nation's 250th anniversary. They will present Our Lady of the Freedoms, and Some of Her Friends, by Norman Corwin, who is sometimes called "the Grand Master of American Audio Theater."

The radio play deals with the people who brought the Statue of Liberty from inception to completion, and of course includes Emma Lazarus, whose poem "The New Colossus" is inscribed on its pedestal. "It's not political but it's very appropriate for what is going on now politically. It's about the soul of our country, what that soul is about. It's about people that are being persecuted, and America as a landing place where people can seek freedom."

The story begins in 1865, with a meeting in France between a scholar, Edwardo de Laboulaye, and a sculptor, Frederic Bartholdi. Laboulaye, wishing to honor the historic kinship of spirit between France and America, proposed the construction of a monumental sculpture to celebrate the new nation's centennial in 1876, on that would rival the Seven Wonders of the World. How would it be funded, and by who? Would America accept it, and who would decide? The answers, drawn from history, make for great theater.

The Third Monday Players present Our Lady of the Freedoms and Some of Her Friends, June 15, 5:00 p.m., Middle Ridge Winery, 54301 N Circle Dr. Free.

Library staff are planning a full summer of free events for kids and others

The Idyllwild Library will offer a varied schedule of events this summer. There will be weekly lunches for kids under 18 on Wednesdays and Thursdays from noon to 1:30 p.m. with crafts or games after. They will also be showing Afternoon Family Movies, Fridays at 2:00 p.m. These two weekly events will run until July 17.

There will be special guest presentations every Wednesday at 11:00 a.m. This Wednesday it will be "Rusty's Rock And Roll Circus." Performer Christopher Yates brings his circus skills to the library. Yates, as "Rusty," draws on extensive experience in circus arts to entertain and educate. Kids learn musical basics and participate with homemade instruments.

On the 17th GeriLyn will teach balloon twisting, and on the 24th docents from the Western Science Center will talk about fossils and the animals that inhabited the local lowlands during the last ice age. There will be touchable replicas of fossils.

In July, Nature Center Site Supervisor Allison Fedrick will bring her critter friends for a special story time on July 1. On the 8th, Sandii Castleberry will connect children's folk songs and literature, and get everybody singing along. On the 22nd, Summer Reading Adventure awards will be given out, followed by a magic show with Christopher T. Magician.

The Summer Reading Adventure is already underway. Readers of all ages can sign up, read five books or more and win prizes. There will be prizes for each level, and a Top Reader prize. This year the prizes included a $5 gift card to Atomic Cow Creamery and free books. You can sign up at the Library or through the Rivco Library "Beanstack:" rivlib.beanstack.org.

Later on Wednesdays the library will host events aimed towards teens and adults. There will be several art and craft workshops, Wednesdays at 3:00 p.m.: June 10 will be Decoupage Glass Art, June 24 will be Essential Oil Rollers, and on July 14 you will be invited to "embrace your imperfections and release your inner artist" at a "Bad Art" Workshop.

Also on Wednesdays will be a Gallery opening for artist Trine Bietz on June 17 at 5:00 p.m., and a US History Trivia Night on July 1 at 4:00 P.M.

On Tuesday, June 30 at 5:00 p.m., Idyllwild Area Historical Society Archivist Bob Greenamyer will give a talk about movies filmed in Idyllwild and surrounding areas. On Tuesday, July 14 at 5:00 p.m. will be your chance to "Find Your Center" and learn more about Spirit Mountain Retreat, our local healing sanctuary.

For questions about Public Notices call the Town Crier (951) 659-2145 or Email: david@towncrier.com

Every day throughout the United States, newspapers publish thousands of public notices about events, conditions or actions that affect countless individuals, families, neighborhoods and businesses. Public notices cover many topics, including business matters, liquor licensing, public auctions and sales, estates, zoning, public meetings, bids to sell goods and services to the government, local government finances and state and local elections. Public notice is a fundamental component of our system of representative democracy, which depends upon the participation of educated, responsible citizens

Statewide June Primary results

By JP Crumrine
Correspondent

Below are the results of the Statewide June Primary. The top two vote getters for each office will be the candidates on the November Election ballot. Regardless of party, the two candidates with the most votes will face off during the fall campaign. Even if one candidate polls more than 50 percent, the top two move to November.

As of Saturday evening, June 6, about 6.3 million (27.2 percent of registered voters) ballots had been cast and 3.3 million remained to be counted. This compares with a 33.2 percent turnout in the June 2022 Gubernatorial Primary and a 37.5 percent turnout in the June 2018 Primary. The Presidential Primaries drew 34.9 percent of voters in 2024 and 46.9 percent in the March 2020 Primary.

Governor

Governor Gavin Newsom had two terms and was ineligible to run again. Consequently, there were more than 60 names on the ballot. Two major Republican candidates, Steven Hilton and Riverside County Sheriff Chad Bianco, and 8 major Democratic candidates were seeking the nomination.

The preliminary results show Democrat Xavier Becerra, with 27 percent of the counted vote, and Republican Hilton, with 26.1 percent, were leading. Democrat Tom Steyer was third with 21.3 percent.

However, in Riverside County, Bianco captured the most votes, followed by Becerra and then Hilton. Collectively, these three garnered more than 70 percent of the counted ballots so far.

Becerra is a former Congressman and has served as California's Attorney General, and the United States Secretary of Health and Human Services.

Lt. Governor

The race was to become the Lt. Governor was less crowded and much closer. There were only 16 candidates on the ballot. As of Saturday evening, the two leaders were Democrat Fiona Ma with 19.2 percent of the vote followed by Republican Gloria Romero with 18.8 percent. Trailing in third place is Democrat Josh Fryday with 14.3 percent.

The County results currently favor Romero's favor. She has received 21.3 percent of the vote, compared to Ma's 14.9 percent. Fryday has 11.8 percent as of Saturday.

Secretary of State

The pattern changed for this office. There were only four candidates since incumbent Shirley Weber was seeking re-election. Weber, a Democrat, is currently the top voter getter followed by Republican Don Wagner.

Weber garnered 56.8 percent of the votes cast compared to Wagner collecting 38.9 percent. However, Riverside County voters favored Weber by only half a percent.

Local Election Results

tial race for Congress in our region," von Wilpert said in a June 3 press release. "This November, voters will have a clear choice: between more of Trump's chaos, corruption and cruelty – or a leader who will stand up and fight for our communities."

Only one other candidate, Democrat Ammar Campa-Najjar, was able to reach 10 percent of the vote, and only three had more than five percent.

In Riverside County, the current results, Desmond leading and von Wilpert second, reflect the Districtwide voting.

State Senator District 32

Incumbent Senator Kelly Seyarto, Republican, is easily besting his Democratic challenger, Tiffanie Tate. The District includes precincts from both Riverside and San Diego counties. Districtwide Seyarto received 59.5 percent of the vote and Tate collected only 40.5 percent. The same result is being replicated in the Riverside County voting, too.

State Assembly District 47

Republican incumbent Greg Wallis is seeking his third term. He has had two very close races in 2022 and 2024 against Democrat Christie Holstege.

Holstege is not running in 2026, but there were two other Democrats – Jason Byors and Leila Namvar -- seeking to unseat Wallis.

The tentative results have Wallis leading with 48.7 percent of the total vote. Namvar is second with 31.1 percent and Byors is third with 20.3.

This could be another close race for Wallis if Byors's voters coalesce behind Namvar.

In Riverside County, which is the larger portion of the district, Wallis had 44.2 percent of the vote and Namvar earned 33.8 percent. In the San Bernardino portion, Wallis received 63 percent of the vote.

State Assembly District 36

This District spans portions of Riverside, San Bernardino and Imperial counties. Riverside County has the greatest number of voters in the District.

Republican incumbent Jeff Gonzalez is seeking his second term and is the leading voter getter Districtwide (45.7 percent) and in all three counties, Democrat Ida Obeso-Martinez was second with 24.4 percent of the vote, but fellow Democrat Oscar Ortiz is third with 20.9 percent. He trails her by 2,060 votes.

However, in Riverside County, Ortiz had only a 324-vote lead over Obeso-Martinez.

Riverside County District 4 Supervisor

Incumbent Supervisor V. Manuel Perez is seeking his third term. He was unopposed in 2018. This year, Steve Sanchez is challenging him.

The current results have Perez leading with 61 percent of the vote. If the final tally is greater than 50 percent he will be re-elected without needing a November runoff.

Other County Supervisor races

With 76 percent of the vote, Second District Supervisor Karen Spiegel is also significantly ahead of her opponent, Sukhbir Singh Gill.

Fifth District Supervisor Yxstian Gutierrez was unopposed for his re-election.

Countywide offices

Peter Aldana was seeking re-election to his fourth term as the Assessor-County Clerk- Recorder. He has 66.2 percent of the vote. His challenger Jared McBride received only 33.8 percent support from County voters.

Ben Benoit was unopposed for re-election to his second term as County Auditor-Controller.

Matthew Jennings has been the County Treasurer-Tax Collector since September 2020. He was unopposed for re-election to his second full term.

Controller

Only three people sought this office. Currently, Democrat Malia Cohen has the highest total with 56.3 percent of the votes. Republican Herb Morgan followed with 39.6 percent.

In the County, Morgan has collected 1,200 more votes than Cohen, which is a .34 percent lead.

Treasurer

Six people wanted to become the next State Treasurer. With 36.9 percent of the counted ballots, Eleni Kounalakis, the current Lt. Governor, is leading. Republican Jennifer Hawks who has with 25.4 percent.

And again in Riverside County, the Republican candidate Hawks has a narrow 2,200 vote lead (or .6 percent) over Kounalakis.

Attorney General

With incumbent Attorney General Rob Bonta, a Democrat, seeking re-election only two other candidates challenged him. The preliminary returns give Bonta 54.9 percent of the votes. In second, with 40.1 percent is Republican Michael Gates. But he is outpolling Bonta in the County.

Insurance Commissioner

Eleven people were seeking to be the next Insurance Commissioner, since incumbent Richardo Lara was termed out. This is a close race and the leading candidates are both Democrats.

The top voter getter was Democrat Jane Kim with 25.6 percent of the vote. Democrat Ben Allen, with 19.5 percent, followed. The third-place candidate was Republican Stacy Korsgaden with 16.4 percent.

While Kim captured the most votes (20.8 percent) in Riverside County, Korsgaden followed with 18.3 percent and leads Allen by 10,600 votes.

Superintendent of Public Instruction

This is a nonpartisan race and the incumbent Tony Thurmond was not running. There were 10 candidates. Sonja Shaw, president of the Chino Valley Unified school board, was the top vote getter with 23.7 percent. The second leading voter getter was Richard Barrera, President of the San Diego Unified School Board, with 19.7 percent of the vote. None of the other candidates received more than 10 percent.

The Riverside County results were similar.

Cell phone ban shows little effect on academic scores

By JP Crumrine
Correspondent

A ban on student use of cellphones in schools has shown little improvement in students' reading or math scores.

Earlier this month, the National Bureau of Economic Research released a working paper titled, "The Effects of School Phone Bans: National Evidence from Lockable Pouches." The authors were from Stanford University, Duke University, the University of Michigan and the University of Pennsylvania,

As of 2026, at least 37 states and the District of Columbia require school districts to ban or restrict students' phone use in schools.

The study focused on school districts that ban the use of cellphones during school hours and also require students to place them in Yondr pouches which are lockable during school hours.

The level of the ban varied among the districts. Some schools restrict usage only during class periods, while others required physical restrictions such as lockable pouches or centralized collection.

The authors offered several conclusions based on the review of usage at more than 4,600 school districts.

"Average effects on standardized test scores are close to zero and precisely estimated . . .," the authors reported. "While the average academic effects mask interesting heterogeneity—modest positive effects in high schools and small negative effects in middle schools—the magnitudes are relatively small in both settings".

While the academic results are important, the report also identified several social and behavioral changes that occurred the longer the cellphone bans were enforced.

For example, disciplinary incidents increase in the year of adoption but fall in subsequent years. The same effect was noted for the student's sense of well-being – decline but recovery and improvement.

Effects on attendance were "close to zero" — researchers also found no measurable improvements in perceived online bullying or self-reported classroom attention.

In 2024, the California legislature passed and Gov. Gavin Newsom signed Assembly Bill 3216, which requires the governing body of a school district, a county office of education, or a charter school to develop and adopt a policy to limit or prohibit pupils using smartphones while at a school site. This policy must be adopted by July 1, 2026.

The Hemet Unified School District strictly prohibits the use of cell phones, earbuds, and other personal electronic signaling devices during the instructional day. Students must silence their devices and store them out of sight before entering campus, though individual school sites may allow limited use during non-instructional times

This year, the Assembly Education Committee recently reviewed AB 1644," the School Bell-to-Bell Smartphone Ban." Assemblymembers Al Muratsuchi (D–Torrance) and several colleagues introduced it. AB 1644 amends 3216 to require California public schools TK-12 to adopt clear, consistent "bell-to-bell" policies that limit student use of smartphones throughout the school day, with appropriate exceptions for safety, health, and educational purposes.

"It would be a mistake to interpret these findings as a sign that we should forget about phone bans altogether. There are no magic bullets in education," wrote Emily Oster, an economist at Brown University since 2019, in an opinion piece in the New York Times on May 7. "Improving student learning is a game of inches, not miles. There is no clear positive reason for students to have phones in the classroom."

Third quarter County budget has $28 million deficit

By JP Crumrine
Correspondent

County Executive Officer Jeff Van Wagenen's presented the status of the County's third quarter budget Fiscal Year 2025-26, which ends June 30, to the Board the Supervisors at its June 2 meeting.

There was no discussion and the report was accepted. At a special budget meeting on June 8, the board will begin discussing the FY 26-27 budget. That fiscal year begins July 1.

". . . while current-year discretionary revenues provide near-term budgetary support, future growth is expected at moderate levels. As fiscal pressures continue to emerge, maintaining fiscal discipline will be critical to sustaining core services and aligning available resources with County priorities," Van Wagenen wrote in his conclusion.

The General Fund's discretionary financial position is projected with revenue of $1.366 billion, an increase of $45.6 million over the original estimate last June, and $10.5 million since the mid-year review in February.

This increase is primarily attributed to a $19.8 million net increase in property tax revenue, a $22 million increase from interest earnings, a projected $4.6 million increase in Sales and Use taxes, and $2.3 million in motor vehicle fees.

However, County costs have increased and the "just-in time" funding for several departments, whose initial budget approval was less than the estimate, were granted additional funding this spring.

For this fiscal year, the Supervisors agreed to the "just-in-time" process which provides flexibility by allocating resources to departmental needs as those needs became more apparent, and as discretionary revenue projections trended higher than originally estimated.

Consequently, the result is an operational deficit of $28 million.

Some programs needed the use of contingency funds. Through May 12, the County has used $8.7 million of its appropriated $24.2 million in contingency funds.

However, the "just-in-time" funding needed now was $59.6 million. Half of this went to the Sheriff's Department to cover unfunded negotiated salary increases.

The Riverside University Health System -- Detention and Correctional Health Systems needed $22.1 million to support operational costs such as salary and benefits to provide emergency and acute inpatient care for the inmate population.

The District Attorney's Office and the Assessor's Office both needed additional funding, too.

The FY 26-27 budget hearing begins Monday, June 8 and may continue the next day. The final budget is expected to be approved at the June 23 Board of Supervisors meeting.

Animal Rescue Friends president Janice Murasko tells us these two sisters, Eleanor and Lucy Turner, came into ARF this last Sunday with a cash donation. "On their very own, they asked their mom about having a lemonade stand to raise funds for ARF. They gave away glasses of lemonade, asking only for donations to ARF. They collected nearly $50. What wonderful kids!

Idyllwild Master Chorale: Fifty Years of Joyful Song

By Art Connor

As a traditional seasonal marker for events here on the Hill, one can count upon the Idyllwild Master Chorale to present a program of appropriately selected musical pieces. Such was the case on this past Sunday afternoon in the opened-up resonance of Stephens Recital Hall, when Artistic Director / Conductor Dwight "Buzz" Holmes and assembled forces gave out their "Spring Concert 2026", promising "50 Years of Joyful Song" to an overflowing complement of listeners, both inside and outside of the hall proper. And as events turned out, Mr. Holmes' comment to the effect that "the weather gods are with us" served as an introductory benediction to the afternoon's proceedings.

Fittingly enough, the first selection on the program further defined the reverential spirit, with the full chorus effectively presenting American composer / conductor Lara Guldmar Hoggard's arrangement of "The Water Is Wide." The remainder of the concert's first half continued the presentation of Americana, with Randall Thompson's settings of two Robert Frost poems ("Choose Something Like a Star" and "The Road Not Taken"), the first group of "Old American Songs" as arranged by Aaron Copland (two serious and two humorous), and composer Morten Lauridsen's perennial favorite "Sure On This Shining Night"; this last piece being given out with quiet, starlike precision in spite of the afternoon's heat.

The latter half of the concert began with two more-or-less seasonal madrigal settings by the English composer Thomas Morley ("April is in My Mistress' Face" and "Fire, Fire My Heart," both exemplifying Italianate musical forms integrated with English-language texts. There followed two of Robert Evans Holmes' choral arrangements; John Newton's "Amazing Grace" and Sabine Baring-Gould's "Now the Day Is Over", both featuring an accompanying cello obligato by Julianna Buffum Holmes.

Then followed the four-sectioned "Wedding Cantata" of Daniel Rogers Pinkham, in which Solomon's "Song of Songs" is transformed from an allegorical celebration of the bride's virtues into a joyous outgiving of the natural sound palette, thus setting the aural stage for the afternoon's finale, consisting of excerpts from the Broadway score of Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein II's "Carousel".

This began (appropriately enough) with "June Is Bustin' Out All Over", featuring the top soprano voices, and "Blow High, Blow Low", with the tenors and basses effectively faking a sea chanty. The show's protagonist's "Soliloquy" then ensued, with Idyllwild Arts' own Justin Holmes dutifully rendering the character's reactions to his prospective fatherhood in a most effective manner. And in the two succeeding final selections, the entire chorus came out in full-throated splendor; "A Real Nice Clambake" proved a swaying, gemutliche Viennese waltz (as if Oscar Hammerstein II were Johann Strauss II), and the final graduation scene's "You'll Never Walk Alone" radiating hope, redemptive power, and a more than satisfactory conclusion to the event.

One should also note for the record the individual performers' efforts in their combinatory mix for this concert. In addition to the aforementioned Julianna Buffum Holmes and Justin Holmes, the director/conductor's nephew Isaac Holbrook provided an assured and well-adjusted piano accompaniment throughout, and with "Buzz" Holmes' final blessing, encouraging attendance for the subsequent 50-plus yearly installment in December, the afternoon concluded with an intended "Sunday inspirational" effectiveness.

Paz Lenchantin, Crush, Escap-ism, and Dallas Acid at the Rustic: homecoming for Idyllwildian performer

By David Jerome

Songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Paz Lenchantin is returning to Idyllwild with a special lineup for one night only at the Rustic theater, supporting her solo album, Triste. Lenchantin, who was raised in Idyllwild and attended Idyllwild Arts Academy, recorded three albums with the Pixies, was a member of Perfect Circle and Billy Corgan's Zwan, played strings on a Queens of the Stone Age album, has toured with many artists, and contributed to film scores.

Paz spoke to us by phone from Dallas as she finished her tour in support of Triste. The date at the Rustic will be a homecoming and finale for the tour, a one time lineup featuring three of her favorite groups.

She explained that Triste was conceived for a band, although she recorded all the parts herself and later developed an interpretation of the material that she could realize as a soloist. She assembled a band in Mexico City that performed the work as she intended it, but went on the road by herself, using loopers to layer, voice, violins, bass, and keyboard to create a rich sound world.

The tour took her as far east as Louisville, hitting 22 record stores, meeting audiences and getting the record in stores. She said the tour has been very successful, and took heart seeing that it is still possible to promote her art face to face. In the fall she intends to continue the tour and reach the east coast.

She explained that the song that began the album was the last song she wrote for the Pixies, a song they never recorded. She spoke of her second home in Mexico City, adding that half the album is in Spanish.

Paz considers herself an "Idyllwildian" who never really left this place, saying this is where her roots are. She attended the ISOMATA summer program and IAA in its second year, studying music as a string major, then branching out into visual arts.

Paz Lenchantin, Crush, Escap-ism, and Dallas Acid at the Rustic Theater 54290 North Circle Dr. Doors open at 5:00 p.m. Lenachantin takes the stage at 6:00 $20, Advanced tickets at rustictheater.com

Green Monsters win the Major League Championships; Padres "three-peat" in the Minor League

This is my third season organizing the ICC Youth Baseball leagues and each year it gets better and better – the players, the coaches, the energy in the stands, the new additions for the spectators like having a scoreboard, a couple of announcers, music in between the innings, and the Associated Student Body (ASB) snack booth stocked with cold drinks, peanuts and cracker jacks.

But this year in particular, I want to shine the spotlight on the Minor League (ages 7-10). This has been the most exciting, action-packed, and entertaining season yet with many nerve-wracking close games whose outcome is determined in the final inning by a game-winning run or an incredible 'third out' by the infield (two weeks ago we even saw a triple play!)

I cannot wait to see these kids move up to the Major League (ages 11-14) in future years with the skills they have already built up – and that is all thanks to the leadership of the amazing coaches we have.

A big thank you to our Minor League coaches Felipe Davila (Padres), Carl Dewese (Hornets), Manny Garcia (Mountain Cubs), and Jeff Nicklas (Pirates).

Also a big shout-out our Tee-Ball League coaches Jared Trimble (Dirt Devils), Derek McDevitt (Tee-Rexes), Cory Lavy (Mini Bears), and Mel Norman (Wildlings) ;

To our Major League coaches Tamara Bratten (White Fluffy Unicorns), Michael Smith (Dark Knights) and Hal Carey (Green Monsters) ;

And lastly to our umpires Steve Olson, Brian Straka, Michael Smith, and Carl Dewese.

This league could not operate with all the volunteer hours from these dedicated coaches, assistant coaches, and umpires – thank you all.

MAJOR LEAGUE (ages 11-14)

Having won #1 seed with an undefeated regular season, the Dark Knights (sponsored by Pines to Palms Electric) were locked-in to play the final championship game at Top Field of Idyllwild School on June 3rd as the home team.

The #3 seed White Fluffy Unicorns (sponsored by Fairway Foods Market) were to battle #2 seed Green Monsters (sponsored by Idyllwild Daycare) on Tuesday June 2nd for a spot in the championship game against the Dark Knights.

The Green Monsters started off hot in the first inning as Meadow Griffin and Jackson Carey slammed back-to-back doubles, capped off by an infield homerun by Chance Griffin to put the Green Monsters up quickly 4-0.

Despite some great pitching by Benjamin Bush and a nicely hit double by Makai Githaiga, the White Fluffy Unicorns could only amass two runs in the final inning – not enough to answer the Green Monsters' first inning attack.

Final Score: White Fluffy Unicorns 2, Green Monsters 4.

The 2026 Mini Bears wrap up their season with a roar! Back row is Coach Cory Lavy and assistant coach (and daughter) Elayna Lavy.

The Major League championship game on Wednesday June 3rd did not disappoint – the bleachers were filled with an energetic crowd and the excitement from the spectators could be felt onto the field as the #2 Green Monsters were up against the #1 Dark Knights in the final game of the season.

The Green Monsters' first set of batters were smart with the pitches as Preston Davis, Chloe Quintyn, Taylynn White, and Bradley Miller loaded up the bases, just in time for their young slugger who was starting to earn himself a nickname: Chance Griffin a.k.a. "Grand Slam Chance". (For those who don't know - a 'Grand Slam' is when you hit a homerun while the bases are loaded, which is pretty rare.]

Chance had not one, but two Grand Slams in the 2025 season playing for the OG Glitter Sparkles (who won the championship that year) and had hit another Grand Slam in a scrimmage game earlier this season.

And here we are – at the top of the first inning, the bases are loaded, two outs, and "Grand Slam Chance" is at the plate.

He let the first couple of pitches go by and at the third pitch -WHACK!!! – the ball goes firing into the sky like a cruise missile toward the left field post, and over the fence it goes for another grand slam by Chance Griffin!

Tee-Rexes coach Derek McDevitt pumps up his team before their final tee-ball game of the season

The ball was still about 40 feet in the air when it cleared the homerun fence – if it wasn't for the giant pine tree and its enormous branches, the ball would have sailed far over a house of two. What a hit!

And when it was the Dark Knights' turn the answer back, they were met by the fury and precision of Green Monsters' pitcher Preston Davis – who struck out the first three batters in no time. Then did it again and again until the final strikeout to end the game.

Preston Davis allowed only one run (by a walk with the bases loaded) but zero hits.

Not only did he pitch a "no-hitter", Preston Davis also hit a ground-rule-double (almost a homerun) and made an incredible diving catch-and-throw to 3rd base for an inning-saving out.

It is no wonder that the coaches crowned Preston MVP of the game, as the Green Monsters upset the Dark Knights to be crowned the 2026 Major League champions.

Final Score: Green Monsters 6, Dark Knights 1.

MINOR LEAGUE (ages 7-10)

One could write an entire book or mini-series about the 2026 ICC Minor League season alone. So many games decided by just one run, including an incredible 8-run final inning rally by the Pirates (sponsored by Pure Bean) who upset the #1 ranked Hornets (sponsored by Lily's) on May 27th in an incredible come-from-behind victory led by Blithe Kenyon and Maddix Compton of the Pirates, despite a triple play by Hornets' infielders Dylan Stanford, Annebelle Ridge, and Courtney Duke.

Or the third-place match where we saw the Mountain Cubs (sponsored by Dutch Touch Design) win their first game of the season to snag third-place from the Pirates thanks to flawless hitters like Madelyn Foye, Uriah Leih, Brody Beneke, Uriah Guy, and Layla Nowlin with a 12-6 victory. Too many great games to mention this season.

In the final championship game on Wednesday June 3rd, it was the #2 seed Padres (sponsored by Black Mountain Coffee) going against Coach Carl Dewese and the #1 seed Hornets.

Padres' coach Felipe Davila has led his team to back-to-back championships in the past two years, however the Padres could not find a path to victory yet this season against the Hornets as they lost both their scrimmage and regular games to 'the Hive'.

The Hornets took an early lead 5-3 in the first inning, but the Padres – with some great infield plays and runs scored - managed to tie the game in the second inning 5-5.

Then the Padres did what they always do in the later parts of the game – pedal-to-the-metal, they cranked up their batting power to '11', slammed in the runs one-after-another, and did not look back.

In the blink of an eye, the Padres were up by 13 runs and got the final out they needed to end the game.

The Padres "three-peat" as they win their third straight Minor League championship!

Final Score: Padres 19, Hornets 6.

This is Coach Felipe Davila's third straight season as Minor League champions – I will let him close out this article (and the season) with some great words about his championship team: "Wow, what a season, Padres fans! I couldn't be prouder of how this season turned out. From start to finish, I watched these kids improve in every aspect of the game.

Vera Howell and Esmé Mapel were the heart and soul of the team. Cooper Jones and Epifanio Davila were our power hitters, always coming through when it was time to bring teammates home. Layne Ohall and J.J. Ruiz brought incredible consistency all season long—and what a fun pair of kids they are.

A special 'thank you' to Logan Bayer and our sponsors at Black Mountain Coffee for supporting the team throughout the season. Thank you as well to Pennie Bratten, Jude Schumacher, and Harper Ballou. You kids are rad teammates!

It has truly been an honor to coach all of you this season.

A huge shout-out to the two best assistant coaches anyone could ask for: Ryan Jones Darling and Charity Whitamore. I couldn't have done it without you.

And one final mention to Carl Dewese and Shawn Adams of the Hornets—thank you for an amazing season and for being such great competitors. See you all next year!"

Horoscopes

June 2026 — Week 2

March 21 – April 19
Things that usually come easily and quickly for the ARIES Lamb might need more of your time and attention during the next several days. Try to be patient as you work things out.

April 20 – May 20
A changing situation can create some complications. But if you apply your sensible Bovine mind to what seems to be a hopeless tangle of confusion, you'll soon sort things out.

May 21 – June 21
Creating a new look for your surroundings is fun. Expect to hear mostly positive comments on your efforts, as well as some well-intended suggestions that you might want to note.

June 22 – July 22
Maybe you'd rather do anything else than what you're "stuck with" right now. But if you stop complaining, you might see how this could lead to something with real potential.

July 23 – August 22
Even a proud LEO ultimately recovers from hurt feelings. However, a damaged relationship might never heal unless you're willing to spend more time and effort in trying to work things out.

August 23 – September 22
There are lots of changes on the horizon, so be prepared to make some adjustments in your usually fine-tuned life. One change might even impact a personal decision that you've been putting off.

September 23 – October 22
Being the dependable person you are could work in your favor for a project that requires both skill and accountability. But check this out carefully -- there could be a hidden downside.

October 23 – November 21
A temperamental outburst about a mishandled project causes some fallout. Be sure to couple an apology with an explanation. A new opportunity beckons by week's end.

November 22 – December 21
Changing horses midstream is usually unwise -- but sometimes necessary. Examine your options carefully before making a decision. A trusted colleague offers good advice.

December 22 – January 19
While much of your time is involved with business matters, more enjoyable opportunities open up by week's end. Enjoy yourself, but be careful that you don't overspend!

January 20 – February 18
A "revelation" expands your perspective on what is really going on in the workplace. What you learn could make a difference in your career path. Continue to be alert for more news.

February 19 – March 20
Not wanting to make waves might be the safest way to deal with a difficult situation. But no substantive changes can be made unless you share your assessments with others.

Art Alliance Summer Kickoff

Jolene Paige, Art Alliance of Idyllwild President, tells us that their recent event at Town Hall was a fantastic day. "Our Summer Kick-Off 2026 was a joyful celebration of art, music, creativity, and community. Thank you to everyone who volunteered, donated, performed, attended the event, and helped create such a memorable day. The energy at Town Hall was incredible, and it was wonderful to see so many people coming together to celebrate the arts."

Guests enjoyed live music, live painting, a free make-and-take art project, a community art project, a family coloring table, face painting, Chili Bowls for Charity, a silent auction featuring donations from local artists and businesses, and a special appearance by Mayor Max.

There was also a judged exhibition, with the following artists and works recognized:

Creature Corner

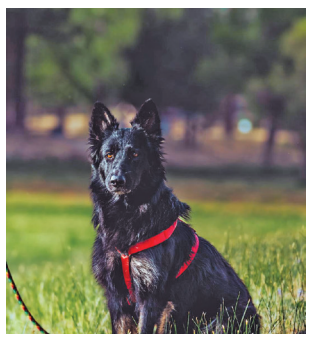

Last week in Days of Our Nine Lives, the ARF cats and dogs talked about recent Pug adoptions.

Pepper: Hey! We've got two new cats!
Sequoia: I saw them. What beautiful cats they are.
Pepper: These two came to us after their person passed away.
Milo: Can you tell us anything about them?
Louie: Are you talking about me and Diamond?
Milo: We are! You must be Louie. And that beauty behind you. Is that Diamond?
Diamond: It is I! We came to ARF as a bonded pair. We really want to stay together.
Star: So, how old are you?
Honey: Allow me! They have said they are about 3 years old, and every person who has met them can't stop talking about how friendly and affectionate they are.
Pepper: And they are so good with children. Last Sunday there were about 10 different kids in here, and those two were wonderful with them all.
Star: Even the very young visitors, and by that I mean kids under 3 years old.
Louie: All of that is correct. Diamond and I are true people lovers. We would just like to stay together.
Milo: And I bet when there is no human at home, you are comfortable with each other.
Diamond: You've got that right!
Milo: And let's not forget that there are still 3 kittens looking for forever homes.
Honey: And did anyone mention that ARF now has a pregnant cat?
Pepper: Oh boy. That means there will soon be even more kittens!

Stitch & Stone: Building a Legacy of Her Own

By Sam Markus
Correspondent

For many locals, the Candy Cupboard feels as permanent a part of Idyllwild as the pines. The shop has been serving sweets to generations of mountain residents since 1981, when Patty Mckee transformed the building from an insurance office into what would become one of the town's most beloved institutions. Today, her daughter Jennifer McKee continues that legacy. But with the opening of Stitch & Stone, McKee is also beginning one of her own.

Located among the growing collection of businesses at Forest Haven, Stitch & Stone brings together apparel, textiles, gifts and home goods selected to reflect the mountain lifestyle. "The name came from the two sides of the store," McKee explained. "Stitch represents apparel and textiles, while Stone represents home."

The concept had been quietly forming for years. Although she has spent much of her life connected to the Candy Cupboard, McKee said the business was never her primary creative outlet. Prior to opening Stitch & Stone, she worked in event and wedding design, where she found opportunities to create experiences, develop aesthetics and bring ideas to life.

That creative impulse never disappeared. "I always had it in the back of my mind," she said. When developer Kenny Gioeli began assembling the Forest Haven collection of businesses and creating a new destination in Midtown, McKee saw an opportunity. Encouraged by the energy building around the project and the changing culture of the area, she submitted a proposal that was quickly accepted. The timing felt right.

McKee describes Stitch & Stone as a mountain-born brand intended to serve both residents and visitors through thoughtfully selected products, quality materials and sustainable, ethically produced goods offered at approachable price points.

Her goal is to create a place where people can find gifts, clothing and home items that feel connected to the character of Idyllwild itself.

The shop is still in its early days, but McKee already sees room for growth. Future plans include expanding into original candles, fragrances and eventually home décor developed under the Stitch & Stone name.

The opening also arrives during a period of renewed energy in Midtown. The recent First Friday event drew large crowds to Forest Haven and highlighted the growing momentum around the development.

For McKee, however, the significance of Stitch & Stone extends beyond retail. Growing up, she and her mother spent years attending markets and trade shows together. Today she continues Patty McKee's legacy through the Candy Cupboard while carrying forward the values and entrepreneurial spirit she inherited from her family.

But Stitch & Stone represents something different. "The Candy Cupboard is keeping the legacy of my mom alive," McKee said. "But this is my legacy."
